The lease of the Greenhead lot by the city to the David Craig Co. dated from yesterday, and it is expected to be commenced in a few days getting the property in shape for the manufacturing concrete houses.

It is not often that the police are called on to help people move, except to make them move on, but yesterday Policeman Totten was called upon by Constable Cody to assist him in aiding a family to vacate a house in Acadia street. He was wanted in order to prevent a breach of the peace.
The members of the Exmouth street Y. M. C. A. are looking forward with pleasure to Thursday evening when they will hold a banquet in the Sunday school room. They have extended invitations to several outside of the association, and a large crowd is expected. A good programme is being prepared.

The worldwide movement of "Mother's Day," instituted in Philadelphia by Mrs. Anna Jarvis, will be observed here next Sunday by the wearing of a white carnation in honor of mother, home and Heaven. It is probable that appropriate services will be held in the Sunday schools, not only here, but all over the world.

A pleasant time was spent last night at the home of Mrs. Richard Kierwan, Main street, when a number of the friends of Miss Alice Mahoney assembled and gave her a linen shower, because of a happy event to take place in a family to which when she will become the bride of a popular young man of the north end. An enjoyable time was spent in games and other amusements, and refreshments were served.

A SADDENED HOME
Three Children Taken by Death in the Last Four Months

The funeral of Edith J. Marshall, three year old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Marshall, of 102 Queen street this afternoon marks the third in four months and robs the household of the last child. The circumstances are particularly sad as only since January last the parents have been called upon to mourn their three children. The first was six years old, the second only four months and today it is little Edith aged three. This afternoon's funeral was at 2.30. Service was conducted by Rev. R. A. Armstrong and Rev. W. B. Stewart and interment was in the Church of England Burying Ground.

WINNERS IN THE CATECHISM CONTEST
There was a large number present last night in the Chapel of the Holy Childhood, in St. Peter's church, when a public catechism contest was held among the children of the Sunday school. The contest was presided over by the Rev. A. J. Duke, president and opened the contest with an address in which he spoke of the work done for the children in the school.
In the contest the winners, in order of merit were: Misses Bridget Gonnell, Veronica O'Neill, Genevieve Mary, and Win. James. Edmund Gallagher and Joseph O'Hara. Several essays were read by the scholars. Those adjudged best were prepared by Miss Julia Treary and Master Cyril MacDonald. Prizes were given to those who won.

NEW KIND OF TAGS FOR THE DOGS THIS YEAR
Applications for dog license commenced to come in to the mayor's clerk as soon as the office opened on May 1, and quite a number were handed out. They bear the name of James H. Frink, so maybe, though the new chief magistrate was not sworn in until today. The brass tags issued with the licenses this year are acorn shape, so that they can be readily distinguished from last year's.

NEW BOAT CLUB MAKES PROGRESS
Meeting of Executive Tonight—Members Coming in and Boat House Soon to Be Secured

The members of the newly formed boating club of north end are already becoming quite active in the preparation of plans for the summer, and have hopes that before very long they will have a few boat house, sufficient to satisfy their aims for a time, at least. They have decided upon a site, and will build on a vacant lot at the foot of Cedar street. The building which they plan to erect will be a one-story structure, with a space beneath its roof for boats to be stored.
A meeting of the executive will be held tonight in Temple Hall and on Thursday evening a general meeting will be held and it is expected about 100 boat owners and those interested in yachting will be present. Since the last meeting several other owners of boats, who signed their intention to join the club.

FAREWELL TO MR. COHOE THIS EVENING
Representative Gathering Tonight at Reception in Church in Which He Has Been Pastor

The farewell reception to be tendered to Rev. A. B. Cohoe, this evening in Brusse street Baptist church, on the eve of his departure from the city to take the pastorate of the First Baptist church of Halifax, will be thoroughly representative of the religious and charitable organizations of the city with which Mr. Cohoe has been connected. Venerable Archbishop Raymond will speak on behalf of the Episcopal Alliance, Rev. Wellington Camp on behalf of the Baptist ministers of the city; Rev. Dr. Phillips, as a friend of the retiring pastor; J. Hunter White for the Associated Charities; A. M. Belding, for the Every Day Club and probably the mayor will also add a message.
Rev. and Mrs. Cohoe and family are at present the guests of Mr. and Mrs. H. W. Belding, 164 Princess street. Tomorrow night they will leave on the Montreal train for a visit to Toronto and their old home in Ontario before going to Halifax.

DAYLIGHT THEFT FROM STORE IN CHESLEY STREET
Boots of considerable value was secured by a sneak thief who entered the store of Terrence McLurray, 207 Chesley street, in the vicinity of 89 and a silver watch were taken from the store. Mr. McLurray was out of the store for hardly five minutes when entrance was made from the rear and the money abstracted from the till and the time piece, which was on the shelf, was taken. To get to the rear it was necessary to pass into an alley, into which windows look from almost every direction, and how this was accomplished unseen is a mystery to Mr. McLurray and his neighbors. The matter has been placed in the hands of the police.

REV. MR. LAWSON THE LEADER OF Y.M.C.A. BOYS' CAMP THIS SUMMER
Considerable interest is already being taken in Y. M. C. A. circles in the Maritime Provinces, which will be held this year from August 3 to 16, at Robert's Point. A leader has been appointed in the person of Rev. E. K. Lawson, and he will be ably assisted by W. H. Moor, boys' work secretary of the local "Y." Any boy from thirteen years upwards will be eligible to attend.

It is likely a nature study class will be started and a life-saving class as well. It is also thought likely that a "bike" will be taken of a couple of days duration, leaving the camp grounds for behind.
The conference of the Boys' Workers will be held at Big Cove, (N. S.) from July 8 to 15 and give promise of being well attended. Among those who will address the conference will be Rev. Dr. Cutten, Rev. A. B. Cohoe, and F. H. T. Ritchie, Canadian Boys' Secretary.

SAYS HE WAS ROBBED OF $20
A young Englishman, named Harry Smith, aged 21, who came to this country only a few weeks ago, went to the Ottawa Hotel last night and was given employment, on application, as a porter. When it came bed-time he was assigned to a room which he now occupies with the clerk, L. J. Bullock.
The two went to bed, but when Mr. Bullock arose this morning he found that Smith had departed, and had told the junior clerk that he was going for a walk. However, it was found that $20 was missing from Mr. Bullock's trouser pockets, and being suspicious of Smith, he informed the police. Detective Killeen was just on the case, and soon had the Englishman under arrest, though the latter stoutly denied taking the money.

SENTENCE IS YEAR AND ELEVEN MONTHS
A woman, aged 48, was sent for a year and eleven months to the Good Shepherd's Home by Judge Ritchie this morning on a charge of drunkenness. The unfortunate woman was found lying drunk in North street and was taken on a cart to the lock-up. She told the court this morning that she had no home.
Murray Alexander was remanded on a charge of stealing a horse and buggy from his father's place in Courtenay street. He took the horse last night, without his father's permission, and when he returned his father had him arrested.

Frederic A. Cron, son of Rev. Jas. Cron, will leave tomorrow for Salisbury, where he has purchased a farm on which he will settle.

Stores open evenings till 8 o'clock. St. John, May 3, 1910

Boys' Dependable Clothing AT OAK HALL

If good looks were all that need be considered in Boys' Clothing there would have been no special necessity for the Oak Hall Boys' Clothing Store.
But good looks to the suit is but as a clean face to the boy. The virtues of Oak Hall Clothing go deeper than mere appearance. To begin with, the cloth must be right, next the making—thread and linings must be of stipulated excellence and the unseen work—i.e., that doesn't show on the surface—must be dependable. Dress an Oak Hall Suit and it will "prove up" to the last stitch ripped out.
Styles are determined by experts—styles at Oak Hall are liked by boys. Shown in the new gay tones and other desirable fancies, and also in blue serge.

Russian Suits . . . . .	$3.50 to $6.50	Norfolk Suits . . . . .	$2.25 to $3.00
