by Lt.-Col. R. H. Arnold. He wel-comed the competitors and announced title. This was announced last eventhat the Saint John Rifle Association had decided to present silver and bronze medals to members of the teams winning first and second places respectively.

The game will take place on the North End grounds, starting at 2.30 o'clock with the second game carded for Newseystle early next week. This winning first and second places respectively.

Though the day was fine, shooting conditions were not all they might have been. The bright dazzling light, accompanied by a shifting mirage and varying breeze, prevented high scoring.

After the match, competing teams were entertained at a dinner at the Depot House as guests of the Saint John Rifle Association. Lt.-Col. G. S. Kinnear, president of the New Brunswick Rifle Association, presented the shield to the winners. He pointed out the benefits of team shooting and rethe benefits of team shooting and re-ferred to the excellent showing made. The Watermen then turned around

Pays Tribute To Umpires

in which Messrs. Cummings and Fogarty handled the Moncton-Water Department game in Monc-ton last Saturday was voiced by James McLeod, manager of the Water Department, last evening. He said: "We are not saying this simply because we won. We would say the same if we had lost. We were treated fairly and impartially not only by the Moncton umpires but by the Moncton team as well. They gave us the biggest scare of our lives and we were fortunate enough to get a decided jump on them in the second game. We are
