LIQUOR OFFICIALS RECEIVE FEDERAL APPOINTMENTS

J. B. Hawthorne, chief prohibition inspector, announced yesterday that inspectors Fraser Saunders of Fredericton; J. S. Leighton of Woodstock, and Inspector Stewart of Chatham, have been appointed federal officials with power to prosecute the owners and operators of spirit distilleries and owners of home breweries. A plan has been arranged to co-operate with the Dominion Government's department of excise and internal revenue by routing out numerous moonshine stills in the woods and buildings in various parts of the province.

ASKS GUARDIAN FOR SPOUSE.

Wife Says Newspaper Maker Avoided Her After Sleeping Sickness.

Anderson, Ind., Nov. 15.—Mrs. Harry H. Cook, wife of a newspaper printer, has filed a petition in court here Saturday for the appointment of a guardian for her husband. The Sheriff informed Cook he would have to appear for examination on Nov. 23. The Cooks were married in Oshkosh, Wis., in June, 1917, and in July the following year a son was born.

Two years later, the plaintiff avers, quoting physicians, her husband, when in New York, was stricken with sleeping sickness, remaining away from Alexandria until recently. Meantime, she alleges, her husband developed an aversion for her and she has been unable to communicate with him. At Indianapolis she brought an action to determine his mental condition.

The Cooks are wealthy and have spent much of their time in New York and Miami, Fla.

Directors Decide to Hold
Another Show Next Year.

A surplus of $5,736.22 on the operation of the exhibition in September of this year was shown in the report of the secretary-treasurer of the Exhibition Association of the City and County of St. John at a meeting last evening. Previous to the meeting of the shareholders the directors met and received reports and suggestions from H. A. Porter, manager, and E. J. Terry, president. H. A. Porter was appointed to attend a conference on exhibitions called by the federal minister of agriculture. The meeting will be held in Toronto on November 29. The report of the directors was approved, and it was decided to hold another fair beginning September 1, 1923.

The following were elected as directors:—E. J. Terry, G. D. Ellis, W. C. Allison, W. S. Allison, W. F. Burditt, E. A. Dykeman, W. H. Golding, G. C. P. McIntyre, R. O'Brien, R. K. Patchell, John Thornton, W. J. Wetmore, Mrs. H. L. Lawrence, T. H. Bullock, G. Clifford McAvity, I. H. Northrup, E. A. Schofield, W. H. White, Garnet W. Wilson, LeBaron Wilson and R. D. Paterson. Ten additional members of the board will be appointed by these directors.

KILLED BY AUTOMOBILE.
Man Struck While Jacking Up His Own Car.

St. Thomas, Ont., Nov. 15.—Struck by an automobile as he stood at the rear of his car, George Lintner, a former resident of Toronto, was instantly killed today about a mile and a half west of Aylmer, on the St. Thomas-Aylmer highway. The automobile which struck Mr. Lintner is said to have been driven by Clair Kincaide of London, who is at present employed in St. Thomas.

Mr. Lintner was jacking up the back wheel of the car in which he was driving to Aylmer when hit by Kincaide's car going in the same direction. Coroner Sinclair was called and the body was taken to Aylmer. An inquest will be held Monday morning.
