LEFT DAUGHTERS
$30,000, A POEM
AND HER PRAYER

ill of New York Woman Included Bequest to Mrs.
Flavelle of Lindsay.

New York, Oct. 19.—The will of Mrs.
J. J. Ellsworth, of 251 West 87th
St., New York, who died on October 15, leaving more than $200,000, leaves to her three daughters, one of whom is Mrs. Clara A. Flavelle, of Lindsay, $20,000 cash and her "daily prayer." After having made the usual monetary bequests, including a contribution to the Port Hope, Ont., hospital, Mrs.
Ellsworth said in her will:

"Each of my daughters I leave to the care of their sisters, hoping they will always enjoy the love and advice of each other. To all of you, dear ones, I should leave:

Just my daily prayer, well cherished
For the times it's pulled me through.
And I'm hoping as I leave it,
You will learn and use it, too.

Teach it to your little children,
Tell them when and how it came,
Make them understand quite early It's the secret of life's game.

The prayer bequeathed by Mrs. Ellsworth is as follows:
"Dear Father—Help us to express ourselves. We come to Thee, knowing Thou are a kind, a loving, a forgiving Father.
And Oh, we pray Thee to forgive all Thou see'st amiss in us today. Help us to give ourselves afresh to Thee, and

A pretty wedding took place yester-

Mrs. C. W. Magee, East St. John, when their daughter, Olga G., was married to Rev. H. E. Thomas officiated. The bride was given away by her father and was unattended. She wore a dress of sand colored satin with hat to match and carried a bouquet of Opheelia roses.

After a dainty lunch at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Anthony they will reside in Red Head. The popular young people were the recipients of many fine gifts.
