Dixon Oxy, K.C., in regard to the admission of patients of the incorporated village of Rothesay into St. John hospitals. The village incorporation act made no provision for payment on admission into hospitals for non-paying patients. The act, however, he said, does provide that the county shall care for the poor in an incorporated village where that county has a municipal home. There is a doubt, he said, as to whether the county secretary should pay for non-paying patients in the hospitals, the doubt being whether the non-paying patients come under the pauper class. Secretary Kelly said that they felt assured that arrangements can be made amicably until necessary legislation is enacted.

Host of Friends Pay Last Tribute to Mrs. Paterson

Impressive Service at Home of Her Parents, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Moore, Yesterday Afternoon—Burial in Fernhill Cemetery.

The funeral of the late Mrs. Marion Moore Paterson was held yesterday afternoon from the residence of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John E. Moore, 211 Germain street, and was attended by a great concourse of people. The passing of one so cherished and so endearing in the prime of youth had brought widespread sorrow and there was a wonderful gathering of mourners at the Easter Sunday funeral. A quartette from Trinity church with much feeling rendered beautifully the two hymns sung, "On the Resurrection Morning" and "Love That Will Not Let Me Go." James Ford was the accompanist. Rev. Canon R. A. Armstrong, rector of Trinity, conducted the service and was assisted by Rev. J. A. MacKeigan, minister of St. David's Church. Mr. MacKeigan read appropriate portions of scripture, giving the message of blessed assurance of the resurrection. The portions of scripture were taken from the 89th Psalm, from the fifteenth chapter of First Corinthians, and from the fourteenth chapter of St. John's gospel, and Mr. MacKeigan then read the twenty-third Psalm. The prayers of the Anglican burial service were read by Canon Armstrong.

When the funeral moved slowly from the home in Germain street one barouche was not enough to hold the many beautiful floral tributes and the procession was a very lengthy one. Interment was made in Fernhill cemetery and the service at the graveside was conducted by Canon Armstrong. The pall-bearers were J. Balfour Paterson, George Miller, Frank Ross, Charles Burpee, Victor Crosby and Gordon Peters.

The bright sunshine of the perfect spring day with its promise of quickening life was a softening and grateful influence and while sympathy in abundant measure went out to the bereaved, it seemed most fitting that one so sweet and true should be laid to rest on Easter day with the shining sun above.

Later it was said that the man was her uncle, the brother of her dead mother. It is said that he came to the city after her and took her away to Kimberley on her way to Prince Edward Island. The detectives were notified by Mr. Haynes.
