MONDAY'S BIG SPECIAL!

"HALF A CHANCE"
with Maxton Hamilton & Lillian Rich

From the novel by Frederic S. Isham

A virile-pulsed drama of a prize fighter, battered by Fate, bleeding in body, seared in soul, who gets half a chance by a shipwreck accident, and comes back to claim the fruits out of which he was cheated. A gigantic play with climaxes that rise like Pike's Peak, and heart interest with the sweep and surge of Niagara. A tremendous production!

NG BANG CIRCUS
A BIG SUCCESS

Any clever athletic stunts both by men and by individuals marked the Bang Circus which was staged in Y. M. C. A. gymnasium last night which will be repeated there this evening. The troupe of clowns added a dash of comedy to the program.

The show opened with the triumphal entry of the entire company of 200 persons led by the Clown Jaz band. The opening number had plenty of comedy.

The senior leaders gave an exhibition parallel bar pyramid work and also a French drill.

The mat pyramid act of the intermeddles was well done. The tumbling exhibition by the expert squad including Ewing, S. Ellis and A. Noble showed considerable acrobatic ability on the part of the ladies.

Perhaps the funniest act on the whole was the boxing match between two and-a-half youngsters.

The vaulting-horse work by the junior leaders provided an entertaining athletic feat and likewise furnished some of the best of the evening.

James Cromwell gave a specialty in which he displayed a wide diversity of talent. Glad in kilt, he entered playing a bagpipes; then he gave an exhibition of twirling a drum major's baton, sides this he did several juggling acts with bottles, hoops and clubs and completed his comprehensive offering by using the Highland fling.

C. J. Messereau was the ringmaster of the circus. Others who took leading parts were H. Burley, W. Stirling, W. Evans, Johnston, F. Cross, C. Urquhart, K.

We claim it the best 7c cigar in the land. Four of them cost a quarter.

JOHNSON DEMANDS DRASTIC CHANGES

Declares Thirty Per Cent. of Club Owners Must Be Driven Out for "Good of Baseball."

Cleveland, April 2—Certain owners of major league clubs have not been true to their trust and will be driven from baseball, Ban Johnson, president of the American League, declared. These facts, Mr. Johnson said, developed from the recent investigations into the baseball scandals. "Thirty per cent of the owners of teams in the American and National Leagues must go," Johnson said. "Changes in ownership are necessary for the good of the game, and I expect to see the other owners combine with me in helping to bring about the much needed changes."

Mr. Johnson refused to state which of the owners he referred to. "Baseball suffered a temporary setback as a result of the 1919 world's series scandal and the recent dismissal of the indications returned against the Chicago players and others involved in the case," Mr. Johnson continued, "but new indications have been returned, and I pledge myself that the cases will be prosecuted to the limit. Baseball must be cleaned of all the poison that was injected into its system by a few petty gamblers and several easily tempted players, and I will not rest content until the general public says of the national game that the wound has been thoroughly healed and the guilty have been sufficiently punished."

Mr. Johnson delivered an address here tonight on "Keep Baseball Clean" before the Cleveland Recreation Council.

MENTAL TROUBLES.

Judge Warns Litigant of Peril of The Law Courts.

London, April 2—Certified to be suffering from delusions, Miss Annie Howe, of Notting Hill, was removed to Kensington Infirmary in March, 1918, and detained there, and at Hanwell Asylum for three months.

She has since been Kensington Guards in the King's Bench Division for illegal detention on the ground that she was sane at the time.

For the defence, Mr. Bevan, K. C., said everything was done properly, and reasonable care was taken. One of Miss Rowe's delusions was that her rooms were connected with telegraph wires.

Mr. Justice Shearman: I had a letter some time ago from a lady who said electric messages came through to her from Lloyd George.

Dr. Daniel said Miss Rowe suffered from delusions, particularly a delusion that machines operated on her body to freeze and heat her.

NEW MOVE BY DOUGHTY'S COUNSEL

Toronto, April 2—John Doughty, convicted of the theft of $105,000 of government bonds, the property of his former employer, Ambrose J. Small, wealthy theatre owner who has been missing since December 2, 1919, will be up before County Judge Denton next Monday for sentence.

Doughty's counsel, I. F. Hellmuth, K. C., will move for an order to permit evidence taken at the trial to be presented before a court of appeal to see whether Doughty should be entitled to a new trial or not.

A second charge against Doughty, conspiring to kidnap Ambrose Small, will not be tried until the May sitting of the county criminal court.
