RECENT WEDDINGS

Ross-Galbraith.
The residence of the bride's mother, 8 King street, West St. John, was the scene of a happy event on Thursday evening, June 2, when Edna Florence, daughter of Mrs. Susie Galbraith, became the wife of Walter Harold Ross. The bride was given in marriage by her father, Leonard, and the ceremony was performed by Rev. J. Heaney, B. A., in the presence of a large number of relatives and friends. The bride's wedding gown was of Alice blue tulle and a traveling suit of grey broadcloth to match. After the ceremony a dainty repast was served. The presents were numerous and useful and included silver, cut-glass and china. The groom is a returned man who spent more than three years in the C. O. D. C. and a member of the dental staff of the C. R. R. Mr. and Mrs. Ross left by evening on their honeymoon which will include a visit to several Scotch towns and a motor trip through the Annapolis Valley. On their return they will reside at West St. John.

RECENT DEATHS

P. J. Sweeney.
Patrick J. Sweeney, a highly respected son of Westmorland county, passed away at his home in Shediac on Thursday evening, June 3, at the age of 71 years. He was eighty-five years of age, formerly conducted a carriage business in Shediac and later became deputy sheriff of the county, which position he held for more than twenty-five years. Sweeney is survived by his wife, a previous to her marriage was Miss J. McDonald, aunt of Senator J. A. McDonald, and of Senator J. A. McDonald.

Ross Slack.
Word was received in this city yesterday of the death of Ross Slack, the most worthy scribe of the Sons of Temperance of North America. His many friends in the order in the maritime provinces will regret his sudden death, which took place at his home in Philadelphia last Sunday morning. Mr. Slack visited St. John on several occasions.

Mrs. Florence Cracknell.
The death of Mrs. Florence Cracknell, wife of Rev. T. George Cracknell, occurred on Thursday at St. Luke's hospital, New York city. The late Mrs. Cracknell was a daughter of the late Charles Ward and a sister of the late Clarence Ward, for many years the mayor's clerk in this city. The funeral will be held here this afternoon at 8 o'clock from Trinity church.

HOLIDAY EVENTS

Inauspicious weather curtailed the holiday activities to some extent yesterday. There were, however, several functions to mark the day, including the ball game between St. Peter's and the Commercial, the Sons of England picnic at Central Beach, the formal opening of the Riverside Golf and Country Club, and an affair at the Westfield Country Club. The Fairvale Outing Club opened its season yesterday with a social and basket party was held in the club house. After a light luncheon served by the ladies of the club, a programme was carried out. The following took part: L. Stack, Miss Girdle Snow, Miss Tina Snow and H. Dykeman. The Kenfirth Athletic and Outing Association held a successful masquerade dance in their club house at Kenfirth last evening. The prize winning costumes were worn by Miss Audrey Turner and C. F. Wetmore, Miss Hazel McCready and Maurice Dalton.

DARING ATTEMPT AT ROBBERY
An attempt at robbery was perpetrated in the store of Maurice Kashtsky, 988 Main street, about ten o'clock Wednesday morning, when a young man of

Buy a Hoover Now!

Why spend hours these lovely summer days sweeping and dusting? It is really very unnecessary.

The Hoover Electric Suction Sweeper will thoroughly cleanse your Rugs and Carpets and make them longer lived. It restores faded colorings; straightens out crushed nap; removes all embedded dirt; and takes away clinging surface matter.

With Hoover air attachments you can easily remove cobwebs from ceilings; light ashes from fire places; reach down into registers; cleanse over stuffed furniture and do all sorts of dusting.

The Hoover is the only machine of its kind that Beats—As it sweeps—As it suction cleans. It does all this absolutely without the slightest harm to even the very finest carpets.

How Much Does a Good Watch Cost?

THE automobile has been instrumental in teaching us to figure costs.

The purchase price—plus the upkeep—divided by the years of service—gives you the actual cost.

On that basis a good watch is the cheapest thing of value that you can own. A good watch is a necessity and will last a lifetime.

Our stock is ample for all needs.

Chatterbox Says:

Apple Blossoms! Yes, out in bloom, and how lovely they are, too, all pink and white and green. Do you know I saw a dress of plaid gingham, that looked just like them. Pink, white and green plaid, with cuffs and pockets of pink organdie. Another frock, made me wonder if the designer had taken his inspiration from the garden. Made of lavender linen, it boasted two or more pockets on each hip, these, bound with white plique and fastened with pearl buttons. The blouse made with a wide collar also of plique—and a fascinating narrow white kid belt. Truly a "Morning Glory," "Cornflower," I'll call a frock of blue and white dotted Swiss. But, then that's another story and I've no more space left.

"Chatterbox."
