RECENT WEDDINGS

In the Methodist church at Westfield, which was prettily decorated for the occasion, the marriage of Miss Olive Porter and Osborne Blanchard, both of Westfield, was solemnized last evening by the pastor, Rev. Robert Smart. The ceremony was witnessed by a large number of friends and relatives. The bride, who looked charming in her traveling gown of navy blue serge with beaver plush trimmings, was unattended and was given in marriage by her brother, Wellington Porter. Mr. and Mrs. Blanchard left on the Boston train for their new home in Morrell (Me.), where Mr. Blanchard holds the position of agent for the C. P. R. The good wishes of many friends went with them.

At the Mission Church, last evening, by Rev. J. V. Young, Charles W. Morrell, son of D. B. Morrell, was united in marriage to Emma Christina Connell, daughter of C. A. Connell. The bride was given away by J. Durban. Mr. Morrell is a popular and esteemed member of the staff of Waterbury & Rising, Union street.

On Christmas day at the home of Rev. E. A. Alaby, 87 Victoria street, Miss Beatrice Evelyn Fisher, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Fisher, of Fort Fairfield (Me.), formerly of St. John, was united in marriage to Frank William Cosman, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Cosman, of Kingston. After the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Cosman left on a short wedding trip. After their return to the city they will reside at 87 Orange street.

ACTORS JOBLESS

New York, Dec. 30.—In the wake of unprecedented theatrical prosperity, a larger number of road shows have been recalled, throwing hundreds of actors out of employment. The reasons assigned by producers are the holiday season, cost of transportation, and the actors' Equity Association governing paying of actors.

RECENT DEATHS

The death occurred at a late hour last night of James Grey, well known and highly respected citizen of West St. John. Mr. Grey was employed in the waterworks in the west side. His death occurred after a very short illness in his seventy-second year. He leaves to mourn two brothers, John, of Milford, and Michael, of Sackville, (Mass.), also one sister, Mrs. Walter Walsh, of Kenora, (Ont.) and two nieces. The funeral will take place on Saturday afternoon at 2:30 from his late residence, 118 St. James street, West.

The death occurred in this city yesterday, of Margaret T. Costello, eldest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Costello, of 180 Brussels street. Besides her father, she leaves three brothers, Joseph T., Peter, Frederick, and one sister, Kathleen. The girl was a great favorite amongst all who knew her, and her loss will be sincerely mourned by many friends. Much sympathy is extended to the bereaved family during this time of sorrow.

Baron Mayor Des Planches, former Italian ambassador to the United States, and later Italian general commissioner in England, is dead in Rome.

Mrs. Lewis B. Wood, of Lower Tyrone, P. E. I., died on Tuesday. She was a sister of Mrs. William Skymest, of Fairville, and Mrs. George Sealy, of this city.

William Hood Rowan, a native of St. John, died suddenly in Liverpool, England, recently. His wife formerly Eleanor Aitken of St. John, and a sister, Miss Jean Rowan, teacher in Central school, survive.

Robert A. Williston of New-castle, died on December 28 at the Miramichi hospital, Newcastle. He is survived by his wife, four sons and four daughters.

SALESMEN MEET

Optimistic Reports Presented at Gathering of T. H. Estabrooks Co. Travelers.

Salesmen covering the maritime provinces for T. H. Estabrooks Co., Ltd., met at the company's offices, in St. John, on Thursday, December 30th. The work of the year was reviewed and plans were outlined for the coming year. Optimistic reports were received from all sections of the provinces and prospects for good business in 1921 are bright. The following salesmen attended: L. C. Armstrong, B. Marshall Armstrong, G. A. Trilles, A. R. Smith, H. G. O'Dell, A. A. McAdam, LeB. Pridham, J. V. Keirstead, F. R. LeClair, Harvey Colwell, E. A. Allain, E. L. Frew.

GALA DAY FOR BOYS PLANNED

It is planned by Mayor Schofield to hold a "hike" on New Year's Day to show the under-developed boys of St. John that they are capable of responding to the benefits of the great outdoors in somewhat strenuous fashion. It is planned to foregather with various parts of the city in collaboration of the Y. M. C. A. and Boy Scouts of all St. John. A hidden enemy will be indicated by a red spot on a blue print within a radius of more than two and a half miles and the successful team finding the hidden spot will be rewarded by a pot of "Pirate Gold," which a local concern will hide. Perfume and potatoes will be provided when the hidden enemy is located and will be served in Boy Scout style. The parties will return to the city in a body. Blue prints will be prepared with the old court house as a centre, so that the kids will have something to work on, and the outing which is to be carried out at the expense of the mayor, will be held even though a blizzard of drizzling rain mark the holiday.
