Leo's Grocery Sale

183 Charlotte St. - 250 Union St.

We have just taken over a large stock of groceries of all kinds and are putting the entire stock on sale for genuine purpose. This great sale will commence Friday, 10 a. m., February 6th. An opportunity like this is seldom presented to the shopping public of St. John.

I have been known as LEO'S of 183 Charlotte Street, the fruit, candy and grocery man whom you all know with a reputation for honest and straight-forward selling. My business has grown beyond the capacity of 183 Charlotte street and I have taken over the stand of 250 Union street, so that I can the better supply the need of all my customers in fruit, candy and grocery

Don't fail to take advantage of such a wonderful opportunity to reduce the high cost of living by supplying not only present needs but anticipating future requirements

They have failed to reach any reason the control of them find the control of the control o French have created a sch returned from a business trip to London, with a few statements on the sam also saw the French star give a number of exhibitions in his own country.

"To my way of figuring it there is nothing to the argument at all," he said, "Carpentier and his manager, the smart Deschamps, have been cunning enough to pick up the very best parts of every American fighter they have seen in the last ten years and have rolled the entire bag of tricks into this one big man, Georges tire bag of tricks into this one big man, Georges.

To begin with, they had the crafty Kid McCoy over there for quite some time as a good model upon which to build a good foundation for the whole thing "Undoubtedly Carpentier got most of his early ideas of boxing from this great model. And let me tell you, if you remember McCoy very well, Carpentier will certainly be reminiscent of the Kid as soon as you put eyes on him. He is McCoy all over as he shapes up.

"In addition to that Carpentier had close studies of the hitting force of such men as Harry Lewis, Frank Klaus and Billy Papke."

J. E. Vincent. The sad news of the death of J. E. Vincent in Cambridge, Mass., Feb. 2, was received yesterday by his sister-inaw, Mrs. Maude Fanjoy of this city. Mr. Vincent was only sick a short time and it came as a great shock to a large circle of friends. He was a member of Tremont Temple and sang there for a number of years. He was also a mem-
