Every Once in a While

—we want to give a gift that must be absolutely right as regards quality, style and general appearance.

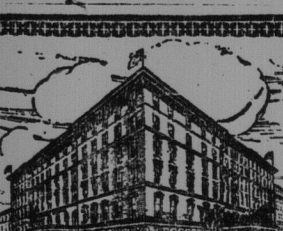

We naturally go to the very best shop we know and tell them what we want and about how much we want to spend.

Birks is just such a store as that, but with One Big Difference—all our "Once-in-a-While" are real customers, who regularly buy from us in the same spirit that they made their first purchase.

They know every gift will be as attractive and as good as the first one—we have shown them that it is possible even in a trifling gift costing less than $1.00.

Write for our Year Book—it will be sent by return gratis.
