Sidelights On Sport

The game in the St. John baseball league last evening was a bit one sided. However, the Fairville boys deserve credit for fighting hard from the beginning to the termination of play. What they need badly is pitchers and unless they secure one or two it will be hard for them to make a good showing. They have a good ball club, but handicapped as they are it is hard to expect them to win games. If necessary one of the other teams should trade them a pitcher if they wish to keep the league well balanced.

Eddie Ramsay's many friends are sorry to learn that he sustained an injury. During the game the boys may feel a bit sore, but once off the field they show a friendship, which is highly commendable. It is up to the league to see that Ramsay gets nothing during his lay-up. He has worked hard for the success of the league and the Carlton team in particular and deserves every attention. Tomorrow afternoon, weather permitting, the high school boys will go to Rothery to compete in the interscholastic sports. They have been training faithfully and expect to bring home a silver trophy, emblematic of the championship, home with them. A large number of school mates as well as relatives and friends are expected to be in attendance.

The St. Peter's baseball team will play in Moncton tomorrow afternoon and evening, and another St. John team, under the management of James McNulty, will play in McAdam.

In the American League the New York Yankees have ousted the White Sox from first place. The Yankees have a strong line-up and will either win the pennant or make a strong bid for premier honors. There are many local fans pulling for New York to win as it will give them an opportunity of going on to see some of the games in the world's series. If the western teams win they will miss this big attraction.

The baseball critics contend that the loss of Duffy Lewis is being keenly felt by the Red Sox. Duffy was one of the best fielders in the major leagues and was a dangerous hitter. It is hard to understand why a manager will let players of his calibre go to strengthen another club. Reports that discussion is in the club are being denied, but those who know maintain there was discord. However, there is always a certain amount of squabbling on a losing club. Baltimore and Toronto are still fighting for first place and are establishing a record. Some break is bound to come for the strain must be felt by both clubs. They are both drawing away from Binghamton and Rochester.

Alexander is back in form and has started on his string of shut-outs. He has three to his credit since he started on a winning streak.

Manahan donned the gloves for a similar length of time. Half a dozen times the champion dropped his hands to his sides and permitted his boxing partners to hit him when and where they pleased. He appeared to be a better judge of distance than in any previous workouts and used a left jab with telling effect. Manahan's nose was bleeding as a result of coming into frequent contact with the champion's left.

Ray Archer, Willard's business representative, announced tonight that a heavyweight named Ketchel would report in camp tomorrow to relieve Dempsey and Monahan. Archer said Ketchel, a product of the navy, is a 192 pounder with an offensive punch.

He crouches and rips his way into close quarters as Dempsey does, and is expected to be of valuable aid in conditioning the champion.

Soldier Stanton, who was all but knocked out twice by Willard, was dismissed today, after he had scratched the champion's back until the blood flowed, while wrestling yesterday.

Dempsey, whose damaged eye is healing nicely, will not be permitted to do any boxing until Sunday. He went through his usual exercises before a big crowd this afternoon and hit the high-ways for seven miles in the morning.

There were no new developments in referee's made out to his mother, to certain that Ollie Pecora, official referee of the Toledo A. C., will officiate in some capacity, either as alternate referee or one of the judges of the contest if the army, navy and civilian board of boxing control decides to appoint two judges in addition to a referee.
