Add two cups of canned peas to each cup of carrots used. Salt to taste. Mix two tablespoons of cornstarch or flour with a little cold water. Beat until perfectly smooth and add one tablespoon of butter, three tablespoons of sugar, one tablespoon of chopped parslep, one cup of milk and stir into the pan containing peas and carrots. Cook until all are slightly thickened. Serve very hot.

Habitual numbness of the hands may be removed by rubbing them for a short time in cold water, followed with a dry friction.

To clean a watch chain dissolve a little sal ammoniac in wine, and put the soiled gold into it. This thoroughly cleanses the gold and makes it quite bright.

Rev. William M. Gillespie, of River Hebert, and Miss Helen C. Harrison, of Maccan were married on Tuesday. Mr. Gillespie recently arrived from Santa Paula, Brazil, where, for some years, he held the position of chaplain and professor of Latin in the Presbyterian College there. Miss Harrison, the bride, since graduating from Mount Allison, has held an important position as nurse in the city of New York.

It is difficult sometimes, when using essences for cakes or sweets, etc., to measure correctly the number of drops required. If a finger is dipped in water and the rim of the bottle wetted in one lace, the essences will be found to drop uite easily.

Musings of a Pessimist Musings of a Pessimist

One of the pleasant things of this life is to buy a hat for your wife for $21 and take it home and then have her tell you where she could have got the same thing exactly for $5.95.

The things that a feller likes to eat and drink ain't good for him, and anyhow they cost too much.

If all the young gentlemen who hang around poolrooms would go to work, this life would be a lot easier for the rest of us.

(Times Special Correspondence.) London, May 26—A topic very much iscussed here is the establishment of a Canadian Club in London. Very few of the London clubs admit to honorary membership and the result is that Cana-dians are cut off from club life during their stay here. The opinion is express-ed that the time has come for the Canada Club, which is a club in name only, to acquire club premises.

It is proposed to hold a public meeting, and to concentrate public attention on the creation of a Canadian Club in the course of a week or so.
