Calvin Church Affairs
To the Editor of the Times:
Sir:—Permit me to offer a word of comment upon a news item which appeared in the columns of the "Telegraph" and also an item in the "Times," in regard to negotiations for union between St. John's and Calvin Presbyterian congregations, in this city. The statement that Calvin church is vacant and may never have a settled minister again, is a little previous, as the congregation did take the usual steps to fill the vacancy and secure a settled minister, with the result, namely, to be seen. The item in the Evening Times contains the following sentence: "The Presbytery is not taking the initiative in the matter and is not promoting the plan, but the committee was appointed merely to facilitate the negotiations." The opposite is the fact, as Presbytery did take the initiative and not Calvin, and whatever negotiations have taken place the Presbytery's committee must assume responsibility for the introductory steps.

Yours truly,
JAMES ROSS,
Moderator Session of Calvin Church.
