LOCAL NEWS

AUTO REPORTED. J. A. Mann has been reported by the police for driving his car through the city streets without having it properly registered as required by law.

WORK STARTED. Work was begun today on the construction of the new Keith's Theatre, King Square. About twenty-five men were on the ground actively engaged today, and there were about six teams in use. Wm. J. Gibson, foreman of the work, arrived in the city today from Philadelphia. Mr. Wills, who has been here in connection with the work, from Philadelphia, will leave on his return there tonight.

TEAMSTERS' PARADE. Tomorrow night there will be a meeting of all the city teamsters who intend taking part in the monster horse parade that will be held here in Old Home week. The meeting will be in the Opera House building, and it is to be hoped that there will be a large attendance, owing to the intention of those in charge to make this parade one of the features of the celebration, and this can be done with the hearty co-operation of the horse owners.

LEMONS TO BE HIGHER. Local wholesale grocers have received word that the prices on lemons this summer will be slightly higher than is now the case, but probably not so dear as was quoted last year, when records prevailed, being practically the same as at present. New stocks are now enroute here from the Mediterranean, and it is expected that they will command a higher price. The weather will have considerable effect upon the price list, however, as was shown last year when, owing to the scorching heat, prices advanced until records were established.

IN ST. PETER'S. The feast of Corpus Christi was observed yesterday in St. Peter's church, North End, with a solemn high mass at 10.30 in the morning, and solemn vespers and benediction in the evening, large congregations attending. The services last evening were very impressive. After the recitation of the rosary solemn vespers were sung by Rev. M. Maloney, C.S.S.R., with Rev. J. H. Borgmann, C.S.S.R., and Rev. P. J. Holland, C.S.S.R., assisting. At each of the three altars benediction was given. There was also a lengthy procession, in which the little children of the Sunday school in large numbers participated, along with the altar boys, and the priests, by whom the Blessed Sacrament was carried about the church beneath a silken canopy. The married and single men's branches of the Holy Family were also in the line. The canopy was borne by R. J. Walsh, Wm. Doherty, Wm. Kelly and Frank Howard. Rev. A. J. Daley, C.S.S.R., master of the procession, which was one of the lightest ones seen in the church for some time.

PROBATE COURT. In the probate court today the matter of the estate of George C. Wiggins, late of New York, broker, came up. Ada B. Wiggins of Kennebec, N. S., the widow, and executrix, to whom ancillary probate of the will was issued from this court, filed her accounts and asked to have them passed and allowed. A citation was issued returnable on July next at eleven a. m. S. A. M. Skinner is executor. In the matter of the estate of William McAvity there was return of citation to pass the accounts of Thomas McAvity and Mrs. Annie Lucretia McAvity, widow, the executors. The accounts proving satisfactory they were passed and allowed, and an order made for distribution of the balance of the estate to the widow, in accordance with the terms of the will, was made. F. J. G. Knowlton is executor. In the matter of the estate of Mrs. Winifred Flood, widow, there was a return of citation to pass the accounts of the executor. The accounts were found correct, and all the legacies left by the will have been paid, the residue of the estate was ordered to be paid to the daughter, Annie Ritchie, wife of Robert Ritchie, grocer, in accordance with the terms of the will. John Willett, the executor, appears in person.

SERIOUS CASES IN THE POLICE COURT

Man of Sixty Defendant With Witness a Young Girl—Boy Pleads Guilty to Robbery

No less than nine prisoners were arraigned before Magistrate Ritchie in the police court this morning. Six of the nine were charged with drunkenness, while the remaining three had more serious charges to answer.

Three of the six charged with drunkenness were fined $8 or two months jail, two were remanded and one was fined $8 or thirty days in jail. Frank Harris, aged nineteen was charged with begging in Germain street on Sunday night and also lying and lurking in an alley off Church street. He pleaded guilty. He told the court that he had arrived in the city from Halifax on Saturday afternoon with but fifty cents in his pocket. He intended to go to Courtenay Bay to get employment. Not having any money in his pocket he started to beg. He asked the court for a chance to get out of town. He was remanded.

George E. Waldman, aged sixty years, charged with indecent conduct, was remanded to jail. The case will come up for hearing this afternoon at two o'clock. The witness in the case is Grace Robb, aged fourteen years.

Frederick Percy Wright, aged fifteen years, was charged with breaking and entering the store of Alexander Demarsen in Union street, and stealing $31. He pleaded guilty, and was remanded. Detective Killen told the court that $42.00 of the money had been recovered from the boy, the rest of it he had spent in ice cream, cigars, soda water, horse hire and other things yesterday.

Wright was employed as a clerk in the store. Yesterday morning at eleven o'clock the proprietor went to the store and left $31 in the cash box. When he went back at seven o'clock the money was gone. Wright, it appears, had gained an entrance to the store by going through Stackhouse's stable in Caburg street and crawling over a couple of roofs. This was between two and three o'clock in the afternoon. After taking the money, he hired a horse and team, and with several companions started in to celebrate. Demarsen told the police that only last week Wright had stolen more than $4 from him.

According to the police Wright has quite a record, for while employed in a local hotel a few weeks ago he stole a watch, camera, stickpins and other articles from the boarders. The goods were found on him and he was discharged. He at that time promised to leave town. He will likely be brought into court this afternoon.

FIVE MARATHONERS ARE RELEASED TODAY

Necessary to Bring Salary List Down to the Limit—St. John Team Strike Their Stride

No less than five of the players who have been drawing salaries from the Marathon Baseball Club for the last few weeks were handed their walking tickets today. The five are Cannon, Duffy, Barry, Herran and Ramsey. Cannon was signed as a catcher, Barry, Duffy and Barry as pitchers, and Ramsey is a local man. All were given a try-out and without exception they were allowed to go to because today is the last day that the management of the team in the league have to come under the $1,200 salary limit.

With these five men the management of the Marathons had seventeen men on their roster, so it was impossible to carry all of them. It is altogether likely that one of the local men, at present playing with the team, will be released in a day or so. Some of those released have been signed to play in the Nova Scotia League, and will leave for there in a day or two. It was announced in the Times on Friday that the Woodstock team had secured the services of Frank Harrington, who pitched for the St. Peters team here two seasons ago, but now both the Fredericton and Woodstock managers say he is their property. Harrington, as all the fans know, is a good pitcher and would make a valuable addition to either of the teams. The matter will be left to the executive of the league to decide.

The Woodstock team is playing in Fredericton today. Scobold, the big league scout, who umpired the game here on Saturday, left for Fredericton this morning and will umpire there today. This was found necessary as both Umpires Duffy and Murray are out of town. Duffy left on Friday for Boston and on Saturday afternoon umpired the championship game between Andover and Exeter. He is expected to arrive here today. Umpire Murray left this morning for Boston to take some civil service examinations there, but he will probably not be seen here again this summer. The executive of the league have engaged Edward Doyle of Calais to act as umpire for the remainder of the season, and he and Duffy will look after all the games in the future.

Tomorrow afternoon the Fredericton team will be here to play the Marathons. The same team that played against Woodstock on Saturday, with the exception of Pinkerton, will line-up against the capital team, and it ought to be a good game. Joe Tarbell will again do the twirling with McGovern at the receiving end. Now that the Marathons have struck their stride, it is expected that they will go some, and get a few wins to their credit. The Fredericton team have already defeated the locals four games but with the line-up that the Grays had on Saturday, they will find it difficult to register another one.

On Thursday the Marathons will go to Fredericton to play a return game, and on Friday and Saturday will be at home to the Houlton team, who now lead the league.

The game in the East End League tonight will be between the Glenwoods and Commercial. The Glenwoods administered a crushing defeat to the Alerts on Saturday and are going in to win tonight again. The Commercial, however, have a good snappy team and are capable of putting up a good game. The battery for the Glenwoods will be Jennings and Milan and for the Commercial, Boward and Sprout. The Glenwoods are at present leading the league.

Men's Norfolk Suits

Cool, Gentlemanly

The only unimpressive thing about them this year is the price—$12, $15.

Norfolk Suits are more popular this year than they have ever been, probably because the Englishman's idea of dress has begun to be appreciated, and also because of the busy man's increasing devotion to sport and outdoors.

We have never had so fine a selection of cool, jaunty, rational two-piece Norfolk Suits in homespun effects and fancy tweeds, suitable alike for business or vacation wear.

Equally cool, but a trifle more conservative, are the regular two-piece suits in fancy chevots and worsteds, faultlessly made and not equalled for the same prices in any other retail store that holds to the same standard and offers the same guarantee.
