A PRETTY STYLE FOR SPRING

Knitted sports suits promise to be popular in the Dominion for spring and summer wear, partly because they are youthful and informal. The girl in the picture wears a white costume brightened with a conventional block design.

The report of J. B. Hawthorne, Chief Inspector under the Intoxicating Liquor Act, was tabled in the Legislature yesterday. It recommended the elimination of vendors and the establishment of Government dispensaries as a means of securing better results in the enforcement of prohibition. Records for the last year showed a decrease in the number of vendors and a corresponding increase in the number of Government dispensaries.

FAIL IN ATTEMPT TO KIDNAP GIRLS

Policeman Appears and Two of Band Captured as Their Car Speeds Off.

New York, April 14.—Two men seized two girls at eight o'clock Wednesday morning as they were on their way to work in a factory near Union avenue and Frost street, Brooklyn, when they were captured by a policeman and a woman who sought to aid the victims, who were dragged across the sidewalk to the curb, where an automobile was waiting. While the shrieking girls struggled with their captors two other men in the car poked their weapons from windows and threatened all who approached.

As Policeman Joseph Horn of the Herbert Street Station ran up the car sped away, leaving the two men and one girl on the sidewalk. The men fled, with Horn firing his revolver in pursuit. At the third shot, at Frost street and Graham avenue, the fugitives surrendered.

Charges of assault made against them at the station, were ordered when they were arraigned before Magistrate O'Neill in the Bridge Plaza Court. Each was held in bail of $5,000 for examination on April 18.

They described themselves as Tony Carnavale, 92 Havemeyer street, Brooklyn, and Vincenzio Garafola of 188 Orchard street, Manhattan.

Katherine Saracina, sixteen, of 29 Havemeyer street, who lives within two blocks of the address given by Carnavale, and Pauline Minore, eighteen, of 120 Roebing street, told the magistrate that they had never previously seen their assailants. Several women in the crowd, who had helped to calm the girls, accompanied them to the station and to court. A policeman was assigned to accompany them daily to and from work.

FINALLY KILLS HIMSELF.
Carpenter Who Had Cut Off His Hand Jumps Under Train.

Trenton, N. J., April 14.—Some months ago Nicholas Hornick attempted to end his life. He chopped off his left hand with a hatchet and tried to fracture his skull with the tool. His act was attributed to despondency.

Since then he has been unable to work at his trade as a carpenter and this added to his depression. Wednesday he threw himself under a train and was killed. His wife and three children survive.

80-YEAR-OLD TWIN SISTERS
OBSERVE BIRTH ANNIVERSARY

New York, April 14.—Mrs. Herman C. Weiss and Mrs. Caroline Von Pelt of Brooklyn, twins, celebrated their eightieth birthday anniversary this week at Mrs. Weiss' home, 145 South First avenue, Mount Vernon.

The sisters were born in New York, the daughters of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Clary, who immigrated from London.

With them was another sister, Mrs. Henrietta Furman of East Orange, N. J., who is eighty-two years old.

The three sisters are the only survivors of the thirteen children.

HANGED HERSELF.

Winnipeg, April 13.—With her month old baby peacefully sleeping in his cot nearby, Mrs. Mike Labaty, of Transcona, Man., near this city, hanged herself from a bedpost in her home yesterday.

Mrs. Labaty, according to her husband, had been greatly depressed over the loss of $1,200, their entire savings, which had been swept away in the collapse of the Dominion Ticket and Finance Corporation, a state banking institution, here recently.
