Mayor Hayes said yesterday that he is anxious for every employer in the city to observe today as a public holiday. He said it has been brought to his notice that girls in candy and ice cream stores have to work on all holidays and he feels that an exception should be made in honor of the great victory celebration today.

DOMINION EXPRESS AWARD.
Reports have been received here that the Dominion Express Company have received the findings of the War Board granted them by the Federal government. It is said that this board stated that the employees of the Dominion Express Company were not in reality railway employees, as the larger majority of these men were in offices or outside and not on the trains proper, which would classify them as military employees; that the war board or government has not in any order-in-council passed any laws to govern this grade of employees, but only those employed on the trains. The men are said to believe that the award is not a just one and it is suggested that they will resort to other means to secure their desired wage schedule.

BUY-VICTORY-BONDS—
MOB ATTACKS WAREHOUSE BUT GETS NO LIQUOR
The peace celebrations last evening took a serious phase early this morning when the bonded warehouse, owned by J. H. Poole & Son, in Smythe street, wherein is stored all the liquor seized under the provincial prohibitory act, was attacked and broken into. The damage done to building will amount to more than $800. The large plate glass windows in front of the building were smashed in and the frames were broken to splinters.

The building was guarded by Inspectors McAlinsh and Garnet, who were assisted by several private individuals. Shots were exchanged during the bombardment and it is said that two men in the crowd were wounded. The ambulance was sent for but the men refused to go to the hospital. The crowd began to gather about 11:30 and at 12 o'clock, it is estimated, more than 2,000 persons, chiefly men and boys had gathered. Bricks, stones and shots were hurled into the building continuously for about two hours. At the time when the mob first gathered four of the guards had gone to lunch and left only four in the building. When the other four attempted to get into the building the crowd followed them, smashing at the doors. There are many imprints of bullets in the front of the building.

Fergus Poole, manager of the warehouse said this morning that on Thursday night a crowd gathered but, as they lacked a leader, no attempt was made to gain an entrance. Feeling that the crowd would return again last evening he appealed to the police department for guards and also to the military authorities but was unable to secure any men. He said that after the crowd had dispersed a military picket arrived. The liquor was not reached but the crowd gained an entrance into the private warehouse and took six boxes of tobacco, the property of George S. deForest & Sons, Limited, wholesale grocers.

Men were to work this morning boarding in the windows as best they could.

GREAT BRITAIN

(Dedicated to our Soldiers and Sailors by Ellen Marion Welsh, to be sung to the tune of the National Anthem.)
O' Island of the Sea!
Home of the valiant, free,
To thee we sing,
Proud of our liberty!
Great God we look to Thee,
Guide of our destiny,
Our Heavenly King.

Mariners bold are we,
Fearless on land or sea;
In Thee we trust,
Storms' rage or billows' roar,
Against our Island's shore,
Make us but love her more;
Guard her we must.
Isle by the sea carressed,
Jewel on ocean's breast,
Heaven on thee smiles,
Not vainly ships have sped,
And heroes' blood is shed,
For glory crowns thy dead,
Blest British Isles!

We love thy hills and dales,
Thy lakes and wooded vales,
Thy rock-bound coast,
Thy waters azure blue,
Thy sands of golden hue,
Thy birds' songs ever new,
Of these we boast.

To Thee, our God above,
Author of all we love,
Our praises ring!
Keep us within Thy sight,
Brave, noble and upright,
Then Thou wilt be our might—
Our Empire's King!

In enclosing a copy of the above anthem to the Times the gifted authoress says she has long felt we should have an anthem of this character. It is being distributed among the soldiers and sailors in the old country. Miss Welsh resides in Washington, D. C.

DISPOSITION OF THE GERMAN COLONIES

London, Nov. 12.—Commenting upon the question of the disposition of Germany's colonies, the Manchester Guardian says that some of those interested in colonial questions are asking whether the time is not coming when "America will reconsider her attitude in regard to undertaking territorial obligations in the backward regions of the earth."
"If the administration of German colonies is to be added to the already enormous burden resting upon the British Empire," the newspaper says, "this burden, if it is carried alone by us or even shared in some manner between Great Britain and France, may become altogether too unwieldy. There is greatest need in colonial administration of the efficient and liberal-minded help which America could supply."

Owney Hallahan.
There will be many in St. John who will hear with regret of the death of Owney Hallahan which occurred recently in Massachusetts, of pneumonia.

Everett's Prices Will Bear Critical Comparison

There is a decided sense of satisfaction and security in buying home furnishings at Everett's. You have the positive assurance that in every purchase you make here, the price you pay will be the lowest price for which the furnishings under consideration can consistently be sold.

The setting of a price with us is a matter of careful and definite calculation. It is not influenced by any intent to later cut the price and thereby mislead the public. On the contrary, every article in our stock is priced with the full appreciation of the fact that it must bear comparison with the so-called "bargains" and "price reductions"—and that only on the basis of demonstrated value—superiority can we hope to gain and hold your patronage.

We abide by the principle that a price marked right in the first place is always right, and therefore is not subject to reduction, except the regular cash discount. No one can buy her tomorrow for less than you paid yesterday. Your own value comparisons will convince you that the above statement of facts is very conservative, and that you can actually economize by relying upon Everett's, whether your requirements are for a modest flat or a pretentious home.
