

- Q. When was the present house built, do you know?
- A. I could not say, I was away.
- Q. It was built after you left in 1880? A. Yes.
- Q. Up to 1880 you know of only one house being on the lot one and the same house. A. That was all.
- Q. Are you quite sure of that? A. I am sure.
- Q. And that house had been on the lot, was built on the lot about what year? A. About '66 I believe.
- Q. Do you know of there being any garden kept on the lot?
- A. No, sir, I don't.
- Q. You are not aware? A. There was some clearing but I could not say that it was a garden.
- Q. You saw some clearing? A. Yes.
- Q. About what time do you remember noticing this clearing?
- A. Sometime before I left. I don't think there was much done before the transfer.
- Q. Was there any clearing at the time of the transfer?
- A. I could not say.

Mr. Clarke;

- Q. How ~~many~~ far away from this lot did you live?
- A. Just the breadth of the river.
- Q. You were across the river?
- A. Yes, on the left side. The lot was a little up to the right from the river.
- Q. Do you mean to tell me that you do not know whether there was any farming going on there, although you were looking right at the lot all the time?
- A. There was no farming on that lot. There might have been a little bit of a garden. I did not go over it in the summer much.
- Q. Peter George swore at the commission that he built the house and cleared a portion and farmed it before the Treaty.
- A. But he did not do that.
- Q. He did not tell the truth?
22. A. No
