

BUILDERS WANT: EXTRA BRICKS, EXTRA SHINGLES, EXTRA LIME, EXTRA WHITE SHINGLES, EXTRA GLASS, EXTRA PUTTY.

W. S. LOGGIE COY. LIMITED

Miramichi and the North Shore, etc.

MILL BURNED - On Thursday last the mill wood of the Sagay was completely destroyed by fire.

LEAVE YOUR WOOL WITH W. T. Harris to be carded. He guarantees satisfaction and your wool will be returned in one week.

NEW HIGHWAY ACT - Forms under the new Highway Act are for sale at the Advance Office.

THE "ADVANCE" is for sale at Johnson's Bookstore, and the circulating Library, Diamond building, next door to the Telephone Exchange.

APPOINTMENT - Norwegian barque Nemo, Capt. Olsen, from Quebec Sept. 30, for Plymouth, is reported a total wreck at Maine River, Atlantic. The cargo was saved. The Nemo had a cargo of lumber and deals.

MIRAMICHI MARKET WOODS - If you are looking for the right kind of any work, we are quoting prices that will draw the order from your inside vest pocket.

APPOINTMENT - His Honor the Lieutenant-Governor has been pleased to approve of the appointment of Mr. A. Lawrence as Deputy Registrar of Deeds for the County of Northumberland.

NEWCASTLE SCHOOL MEETING - At the Newcastle school meeting which was held on Saturday last, Dr. F. L. Pedolin, the visiting trustee, was reappointed. An amount of $3,400 was voted for the ensuing year.

NO RAIN - The wind blew a gale from the northwest on Saturday and prevented the Miramichi Yacht Club race for the Gold Cup. Orana was the only yacht which ventured out in the squally weather. Even with that canvas she had a wet and wind-splunging time of it.

LET BREAKERS - Charcoal, who was arrested by Inspector Bassett for killing a moose cow and calf, settled his case on Friday. He paid for fine and expenses $166. This with his fine of Tuesday last makes $184 in cost him for moose hunting. He was allowed some time to pay a portion of his last fine - Telephone.

SAY MISS ACCIDENT - On Wednesday, Oct. 7, Miss Jean Macdonald, who was riding on the Miramichi, was thrown from her horse. Her horse was killed and she was injured. She was taken to the hospital and is recovering.

HYPERALIA - Reading was being yesterday from most of the pulpits in towns in commemoration of the marriage of Miss Emma C. White to Mr. W. J. Connors, of Chatham. The happy couple were united in St. Mary's Church by the Rev. F. W. Dixon in the morning and afterwards proceeded to Chatham. Miss White is a general favorite with the people of Newcastle and all join in wishing the happy couple much happiness and prosperity in their journey through life. - Advance.

HAIRY THREATENING SERVANTS - The officers of St. Paul's and St. Mary's churches on Sunday next at the usual hour of special service. A special form of service will be used for Harvest Thanksgiving and the churches will be handsomely decorated. The Holy Sacrament will be celebrated in St. Mary's at 11 o'clock and the Harvest Anthem at the evening service will be "Make a joyful noise," etc., by C. Rippey. Appropriate hymns will be sung and the special offerings will be for the Support Fund of St. Mary's chapel.

FIRE AT HARTWOOD VILLAGE - A fire which broke out at Hartwood village on Sunday night, Oct. 10, at about one o'clock, this morning fire broke out in the new mill owned by the late F. J. McManus, situated at Hartwood village. The alarm was quickly given and the firemen from town and village were promptly on the ground and worked hard, but owing to the inflammable nature of the mill their efforts were fruitless. The building and contents were totally destroyed, and the considerable lumber which was piled in the yard. The loss will amount to about $3,000. Quite a number of men will be thrown out of employment.

CHATHAM RAILWAY LOCAL TIME TABLE - Trains now run on the Canada Eastern Railway between Chatham and Chatham Junction to connect with Intercolonial trains, as follows:

GOING SOUTH - Express leaves Chatham at 3:25 a.m. returns to " 5:00 " Accommodation leaves Chatham at 10:10 " returns to " 11:30 "

GOING NORTH - Express leaves Chatham at 11:40 p.m. returns to " 1:20 " Accommodation leaves Chatham at 1:40 " returns to " 3:30 "

BURGLARS ABROAD - have been doing their work in Montreal and vicinity. They entered Mr. J. M. Flanagan's store in Montreal on Saturday or Sunday night and stole a large quantity of goods. When the clerks opened the shop on Monday morning the back door was wide open and there was every indication that the place had been burglarized. Evidence had been effected by removing one of the panels of the back door, and the burglars on leaving did not think it worth while to shut the door. The valuable and extensive stock was generally overhauled. The jewelry case was rifled and the silk department visited. Mr. Flanagan is of the opinion that the goods must have been carried away in a team. There was no one in the store on Sunday and it is not known whether the burglary was committed Saturday night or Sunday night. Mr. Flanagan estimates the amount of his loss at $300. The principal loss taken were ladies' underwear, overcoats, silks, hats, and even several pairs of boots.

Wormwood's Monkey Theatre. Prof. Wormwood and his wonderful troop of trained animals play at Masonic Hall two days, commencing Friday, Oct. 15th. In addition is added the Queen's Jubilee procession and Prof. Harry J. Daniels and his wooden family. It is a grand show.

At the anniversary meeting of the Diocese of Chatham held in the Church Hall, Fredericton, on Thursday evening last, His Honor Judge Wilkinson was elected a Vice-President of the Society. The learned judge had been a life member of the Society fortunate as to have her piano accompaniment played by Mrs. Charles Sergeant, to whom the scores were of course new only a few hours before she had to render them in public. The entirely satisfactory manner in which they were executed is very creditable to that lady as a pianist.

Rev. Mr. McCoy's Departure. On Wednesday night, 6th inst., St. Andrew's Sunday School Hall was filled with the friends of the congregation to witness the presentation of the last address to Rev. Mr. McCoy. At 8 o'clock, the following, in behalf of the Sunday school members, was read by Miss Denis Walling.

To the Rev. Joseph McCoy, Pastor and Superintendent. Dear Sir: - With feelings of inexpressible regret, we have learned of your intended departure from our midst.

As a teacher and pupil, with its expression in some measure our high appreciation of your benevolent services in our congregation and Sabbath school.

By your genial sympathy with our pleasure, and your kindly interest in our temporal welfare, you have won our affection, and we feel that, during the years of your stay amongst us, there has grown up for you a deep respect, and a deeper affection, that can never be eradicated.

Your kind and simple words of exhortation to look for comfort to those whose souls are in peril, and to sorrow, and to give renewed hope of a happy reunion beyond, so that, most of all, in those homes to which you came, and death, will your memory be forever remembered.

The younger of us who have been baptized and received into the fold of the church, many of the more mature, who in doubt and perplexity, you have directed to the Divine Guide; and, at the drawing of his lot in favor of man, you have presented His call to obedience and service; so that from our Sabbath school have grown up earnest Christians to take the place of the older ones in coming years.

We are deeply grateful that, amid your manifold duties as pastor, you have during the past, assumed the responsibility of superintending our school. For, while your attendance may, from outside causes, have fallen off a little, yet we believe that, with your remembrance, have we, as teachers worked so harmoniously together, not, as pupils, had such a feeling of interest for our teachers, and of veneration for our superintendent.

Your exposition of our Bible lessons has been so plain and simple, and withal so logical and convincing as to be intelligible to the varying intellects. Many beautiful Bible stories, Divine promises and exhortations, have been stored up in your hearts from the word of God and who would dare set a limit to their influence hereafter?

Will you kindly accept the accompanying token of our affection and regard. Yours sincerely, THE MEMBERS OF ST. ANDREW'S S. S. Master Stewart Loggie, pres. St. Andrew's S. S.

Without waiting for the Rev. gentleman's reply, Mr. W. S. Loggie then read another address on behalf of the Kirk Session. It was as follows: - To the Rev. Joseph McCoy, M. A., Pastor of St. Andrew's Church, Chatham, N. B. Dear Sir and Brethren: - Learning of the proposed severance of your connection as our beloved pastor and moderator, we, the ruling elders of St. Andrew's Kirk Session, take this opportunity of expressing our high appreciation of your work as teacher and ruler.

Your logical exposition of truth from the pulpit, has been listened to by us with pleasure and profit. Your suggestions as to church rule and order have been long and wisely considered, and we shall not soon forget their bearing. We shall not soon forget their bearing. We shall not soon forget their bearing.

One of the best musical treats enjoyed on the Miramichi for a long time was last Friday evening's concert in Masonic Hall, Chatham, at which the principal attraction was Mme. Marie Harrison, who was assisted by Miss Jean Macdonald. The program of the evening was as follows: -

(1) Piano Solo, "The Lullaby" Selected. (2) Piano Solo, "The Lullaby" Selected. (3) Piano Solo, "The Lullaby" Selected.

(4) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (5) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (6) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad.

(7) Violin Solo, "The Lullaby" Selected. (8) Violin Solo, "The Lullaby" Selected. (9) Violin Solo, "The Lullaby" Selected.

(10) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (11) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (12) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad.

(13) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (14) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (15) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad.

(16) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (17) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (18) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad.

(19) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (20) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (21) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad.

(22) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (23) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (24) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad.

(25) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (26) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (27) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad.

(28) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (29) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (30) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad.

(31) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (32) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (33) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad.

(34) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (35) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (36) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad.

(37) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (38) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (39) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad.

(40) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (41) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (42) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad.

(43) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (44) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (45) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad.

(46) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (47) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (48) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad.

(49) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (50) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (51) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad.

(52) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (53) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (54) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad.

(55) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (56) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (57) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad.

(58) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (59) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (60) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad.

(61) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (62) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (63) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad.

(64) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (65) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (66) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad.

(67) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (68) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (69) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad.

(70) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (71) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (72) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad.

(73) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (74) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (75) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad.

(76) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (77) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (78) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad.

(79) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (80) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (81) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad.

(82) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (83) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (84) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad.

(85) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (86) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (87) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad.

(88) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (89) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (90) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad.

(91) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (92) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (93) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad.

(94) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (95) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (96) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad.

(97) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (98) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad. (99) Alto from "Mirella" Comrad.

one of timothy seed, &c., and five samples of oatmeal of fair quality, probably 8 or 9 feet in height and stout in proportion, but none coming up to the standard quality required by the committee, viz., 100 lbs., as the heaviest weighed only 74 lbs.

Passing round this barn one found the exhibits of poultry, geese, ducks, hens, &c., &c., some of them being extra fine. They were about as numerous as usual, although much could still be done for the comfort of the ladies, and the sides were solid, so that one could look in only at the top, and in that way it was difficult to make good estimates of the quality of the different exhibits. Mr. R. A. Snowball had evidently thought of this, for one or two of the coops that he brought were large and airy, and open at the sides, so as to give a good view of the inmates. The latter will please take a note of this and remember that the poor fowl have to remain here all day, and should have a little room for exercise and a little water (see better and lot better for it).

This one came to the barn set aside for poultry, dairy produce, cloth, mats, textile fabrics, &c. This collection was really the finest feature in the whole exhibit. The exhibits were of various varieties, in fact all kinds of articles were to be seen, and in first-class gardens. Then, entering the barn, one found on the left on the floor and on the table, chairs, boots, manglewrings, and other articles, such as, washboards, &c. The cabbage were very large and solid, as fine as you meet anywhere; the beets were immense, in fact so large that the opinion was expressed that they were not cut out of the ground, but were found growing within. The other vegetables were also of extra good quality, and all were carefully prepared, washed clean, &c., and looked so fresh that the men present were several times during the day that if they had been sent to St. John they would simply have swept the field. There was a very large number of samples of potatoes, early and late, and all of excellent quality, in fact St. John gentlemen, without asking the price, offered of their own accord $1.00 a barrel for some delivered at the station here.

On the right was an exhibit of harness, saddles, bridles, horse rugs, mats and waggons, far robes, lap robes, belts, whips, and all the paraphernalia requisite in a well kept livery stable or gentleman's coach house. These were of various kinds, and of surprising fellow workmanship. Mr. Leggett, and, although there was no price offered, he reaped a rich harvest by sales of his articles on the grounds, and he well deserved the compliment of being called a successful exhibitor, but also tastefully arranged.

The central table on this side showed the best and latest of our farmers' wives. These were handsome cloths and blankets, woven on handlooms, and of various patterns; some of them were of fine quality, and of surprising fellow workmanship. Mr. Leggett, and, although there was no price offered, he reaped a rich harvest by sales of his articles on the grounds, and he well deserved the compliment of being called a successful exhibitor, but also tastefully arranged.

On the table were samples of eggs and butter, all of the first class, and many samples of home-made bread and other articles. The butter was of fine quality, and of surprising fellow workmanship. Mr. Leggett, and, although there was no price offered, he reaped a rich harvest by sales of his articles on the grounds, and he well deserved the compliment of being called a successful exhibitor, but also tastefully arranged.

The exhibit was exhibited in the large hall of the barn, and the men present were several times during the day that if they had been sent to St. John they would simply have swept the field. There was a very large number of samples of potatoes, early and late, and all of excellent quality, in fact St. John gentlemen, without asking the price, offered of their own accord $1.00 a barrel for some delivered at the station here.

On the right was an exhibit of harness, saddles, bridles, horse rugs, mats and waggons, far robes, lap robes, belts, whips, and all the paraphernalia requisite in a well kept livery stable or gentleman's coach house. These were of various kinds, and of surprising fellow workmanship. Mr. Leggett, and, although there was no price offered, he reaped a rich harvest by sales of his articles on the grounds, and he well deserved the compliment of being called a successful exhibitor, but also tastefully arranged.

The central table on this side showed the best and latest of our farmers' wives. These were handsome cloths and blankets, woven on handlooms, and of various patterns; some of them were of fine quality, and of surprising fellow workmanship. Mr. Leggett, and, although there was no price offered, he reaped a rich harvest by sales of his articles on the grounds, and he well deserved the compliment of being called a successful exhibitor, but also tastefully arranged.

On the table were samples of eggs and butter, all of the first class, and many samples of home-made bread and other articles. The butter was of fine quality, and of surprising fellow workmanship. Mr. Leggett, and, although there was no price offered, he reaped a rich harvest by sales of his articles on the grounds, and he well deserved the compliment of being called a successful exhibitor, but also tastefully arranged.

The exhibit was exhibited in the large hall of the barn, and the men present were several times during the day that if they had been sent to St. John they would simply have swept the field. There was a very large number of samples of potatoes, early and late, and all of excellent quality, in fact St. John gentlemen, without asking the price, offered of their own accord $1.00 a barrel for some delivered at the station here.

On the right was an exhibit of harness, saddles, bridles, horse rugs, mats and waggons, far robes, lap robes, belts, whips, and all the paraphernalia requisite in a well kept livery stable or gentleman's coach house. These were of various kinds, and of surprising fellow workmanship. Mr. Leggett, and, although there was no price offered, he reaped a rich harvest by sales of his articles on the grounds, and he well deserved the compliment of being called a successful exhibitor, but also tastefully arranged.

The central table on this side showed the best and latest of our farmers' wives. These were handsome cloths and blankets, woven on handlooms, and of various patterns; some of them were of fine quality, and of surprising fellow workmanship. Mr. Leggett, and, although there was no price offered, he reaped a rich harvest by sales of his articles on the grounds, and he well deserved the compliment of being called a successful exhibitor, but also tastefully arranged.

On the table were samples of eggs and butter, all of the first class, and many samples of home-made bread and other articles. The butter was of fine quality, and of surprising fellow workmanship. Mr. Leggett, and, although there was no price offered, he reaped a rich harvest by sales of his articles on the grounds, and he well deserved the compliment of being called a successful exhibitor, but also tastefully arranged.

The exhibit was exhibited in the large hall of the barn, and the men present were several times during the day that if they had been sent to St. John they would simply have swept the field. There was a very large number of samples of potatoes, early and late, and all of excellent quality, in fact St. John gentlemen, without asking the price, offered of their own accord $1.00 a barrel for some delivered at the station here.

On the right was an exhibit of harness, saddles, bridles, horse rugs, mats and waggons, far robes, lap robes, belts, whips, and all the paraphernalia requisite in a well kept livery stable or gentleman's coach house. These were of various kinds, and of surprising fellow workmanship. Mr. Leggett, and, although there was no price offered, he reaped a rich harvest by sales of his articles on the grounds, and he well deserved the compliment of being called a successful exhibitor, but also tastefully arranged.

The central table on this side showed the best and latest of our farmers' wives. These were handsome cloths and blankets, woven on handlooms, and of various patterns; some of them were of fine quality, and of surprising fellow workmanship. Mr. Leggett, and, although there was no price offered, he reaped a rich harvest by sales of his articles on the grounds, and he well deserved the compliment of being called a successful exhibitor, but also tastefully arranged.

On the table were samples of eggs and butter, all of the first class, and many samples of home-made bread and other articles. The butter was of fine quality, and of surprising fellow workmanship. Mr. Leggett, and, although there was no price offered, he reaped a rich harvest by sales of his articles on the grounds, and he well deserved the compliment of being called a successful exhibitor, but also tastefully arranged.

The exhibit was exhibited in the large hall of the barn, and the men present were several times during the day that if they had been sent to St. John they would simply have swept the field. There was a very large number of samples of potatoes, early and late, and all of excellent quality, in fact St. John gentlemen, without asking the price, offered of their own accord $1.00 a barrel for some delivered at the station here.

On the right was an exhibit of harness, saddles, bridles, horse rugs, mats and waggons, far robes, lap robes, belts, whips, and all the paraphernalia requisite in a well kept livery stable or gentleman's coach house. These were of various kinds, and of surprising fellow workmanship. Mr. Leggett, and, although there was no price offered, he reaped a rich harvest by sales of his articles on the grounds, and he well deserved the compliment of being called a successful exhibitor, but also tastefully arranged.

The central table on this side showed the best and latest of our farmers' wives. These were handsome cloths and blankets, woven on handlooms, and of various patterns; some of them were of fine quality, and of surprising fellow workmanship. Mr. Leggett, and, although there was no price offered, he reaped a rich harvest by sales of his articles on the grounds, and he well deserved the compliment of being called a successful exhibitor, but also tastefully arranged.

On the table were samples of eggs and butter, all of the first class, and many samples of home-made bread and other articles. The butter was of fine quality, and of surprising fellow workmanship. Mr. Leggett, and, although there was no price offered, he reaped a rich harvest by sales of his articles on the grounds, and he well deserved the compliment of being called a successful exhibitor, but also tastefully arranged.

The exhibit was exhibited in the large hall of the barn, and the men present were several times during the day that if they had been sent to St. John they would simply have swept the field. There was a very large number of samples of potatoes, early and late, and all of excellent quality, in fact St. John gentlemen, without asking the price, offered of their own accord $1.00 a barrel for some delivered at the station here.

On the right was an exhibit of harness, saddles, bridles, horse rugs, mats and waggons, far robes, lap robes, belts, whips, and all the paraphernalia requisite in a well kept livery stable or gentleman's coach house. These were of various kinds, and of surprising fellow workmanship. Mr. Leggett, and, although there was no price offered, he reaped a rich harvest by sales of his articles on the grounds, and he well deserved the compliment of being called a successful exhibitor, but also tastefully arranged.

The central table on this side showed the best and latest of our farmers' wives. These were handsome cloths and blankets, woven on handlooms, and of various patterns; some of them were of fine quality, and of surprising fellow workmanship. Mr. Leggett, and, although there was no price offered, he reaped a rich harvest by sales of his articles on the grounds, and he well deserved the compliment of being called a successful exhibitor, but also tastefully arranged.

On the table were samples of eggs and butter, all of the first class, and many samples of home-made bread and other articles. The butter was of fine quality, and of surprising fellow workmanship. Mr. Leggett, and, although there was no price offered, he reaped a rich harvest by sales of his articles on the grounds, and he well deserved the compliment of being called a successful exhibitor, but also tastefully arranged.

The exhibit was exhibited in the large hall of the barn, and the men present were several times during the day that if they had been sent to St. John they would simply have swept the field. There was a very large number of samples of potatoes, early and late, and all of excellent quality, in fact St. John gentlemen, without asking the price, offered of their own accord $1.00 a barrel for some delivered at the station here.

On the right was an exhibit of harness, saddles, bridles, horse rugs, mats and waggons, far robes, lap robes, belts, whips, and all the paraphernalia requisite in a well kept livery stable or gentleman's coach house. These were of various kinds, and of surprising fellow workmanship. Mr. Leggett, and, although there was no price offered, he reaped a rich harvest by sales of his articles on the grounds, and he well deserved the compliment of being called a successful exhibitor, but also tastefully arranged.

The central table on this side showed the best and latest of our farmers' wives. These were handsome cloths and blankets, woven on handlooms, and of various patterns; some of them were of fine quality, and of surprising fellow workmanship. Mr. Leggett, and, although there was no price offered, he reaped a rich harvest by sales of his articles on the grounds, and he well deserved the compliment of being called a successful exhibitor, but also tastefully arranged.

On the table were samples of eggs and butter, all of the first class, and many samples of home-made bread and other articles. The butter was of fine quality, and of surprising fellow workmanship. Mr. Leggett, and, although there was no price offered, he reaped a rich harvest by sales of his articles on the grounds, and he well deserved the compliment of being called a successful exhibitor, but also tastefully arranged.

The exhibit was exhibited in the large hall of the barn, and the men present were several times during the day that if they had been sent to St. John they would simply have swept the field. There was a very large number of samples of potatoes, early and late, and all of excellent quality, in fact St. John gentlemen, without asking the price, offered of their own accord $1.00 a barrel for some delivered at the station here.

On the right was an exhibit of harness, saddles, bridles, horse rugs, mats and waggons, far robes, lap robes, belts, whips, and all the paraphernalia requisite in a well kept livery stable or gentleman's coach house. These were of various kinds, and of surprising fellow workmanship. Mr. Leggett, and, although there was no price offered, he reaped a rich harvest by sales of his articles on the grounds, and he well deserved the compliment of being called a successful exhibitor, but also tastefully arranged.

The central table on this side showed the best and latest of our farmers' wives. These were handsome cloths and blankets, woven on handlooms, and of various patterns; some of them were of fine quality, and of surprising fellow workmanship. Mr. Leggett, and, although there was no price offered, he reaped a rich harvest by sales of his articles on the grounds, and he well deserved the compliment of being called a successful exhibitor, but also tastefully arranged.

On the table were samples of eggs and butter, all of the first class, and many samples of home-made bread and other articles. The butter was of fine quality, and of surprising fellow workmanship. Mr. Leggett, and, although there was no price offered, he reaped a rich harvest by sales of his articles on the grounds, and he well deserved the compliment of being called a successful exhibitor, but also tastefully arranged.

The exhibit was exhibited in the large hall of the barn, and the men present were several times during the day that if they had been sent to St. John they would simply have swept the field. There was a very large number of samples of potatoes, early and late, and all of excellent quality, in fact St. John gentlemen, without asking the price, offered of their own accord $1.00 a barrel for some delivered at the station here.

On the right was an exhibit of harness, saddles, bridles, horse rugs, mats and waggons, far robes, lap robes, belts, whips, and all the paraphernalia requisite in a well kept livery stable or gentleman's coach house. These were of various kinds, and of surprising fellow workmanship. Mr. Leggett, and, although there was no price offered, he reaped a rich harvest by sales of his articles on the grounds, and he well deserved the compliment of being called a successful exhibitor, but also tastefully arranged.

The central table on this side showed the best and latest of our farmers' wives. These were handsome cloths and blankets, woven on handlooms, and of various patterns; some of them were of fine quality, and of surprising fellow workmanship. Mr. Leggett, and, although there was no price offered, he reaped a rich harvest by sales of his articles on the grounds, and he well deserved the compliment of being called a successful exhibitor, but also tastefully arranged.

On the table were samples of eggs and butter, all of the first class, and many samples of home-made bread and other articles. The butter was of fine quality, and of surprising fellow workmanship. Mr. Leggett, and, although there was no price offered, he reaped a rich harvest by sales of his articles on the grounds, and he well deserved the compliment of being called a successful exhibitor, but also tastefully arranged.

The exhibit was exhibited in the large hall of the barn, and the men present were several times during the day that if they had been sent to St. John they would simply have swept the field. There was a very large number of samples of potatoes, early and late, and all of excellent quality, in fact St. John gentlemen, without asking the price, offered of their own accord $1.00 a barrel for some delivered at the station here.

On the right was an exhibit of harness, saddles, bridles, horse rugs, mats and waggons, far robes, lap robes, belts, whips, and all the paraphernalia requisite in a well kept livery stable or gentleman's coach house. These were of various kinds, and of surprising fellow workmanship. Mr. Leggett, and, although there was no price offered, he reaped a rich harvest by sales of his articles on the grounds, and he well deserved the compliment of being called a successful exhibitor, but also tastefully arranged.

The central table on this side showed the best and latest of our farmers' wives. These were handsome cloths and blankets, woven on handlooms, and of various patterns; some of them were of fine quality, and of surprising fellow workmanship. Mr. Leggett, and, although there was no price offered, he reaped a rich harvest by sales of his articles on the grounds, and he well deserved the compliment of being called a successful exhibitor, but also tastefully arranged.

On the table were samples of eggs and butter, all of the first class, and many samples of home-made bread and other articles. The butter was of fine quality, and of surprising fellow workmanship. Mr. Leggett, and, although there was no price offered, he reaped a rich harvest by sales of his articles on the grounds, and he well deserved the compliment of being called a successful exhibitor, but also tastefully arranged.

The exhibit was exhibited in the large hall of the barn, and the men present were several times during the day that if they had been sent to St. John they would simply have swept the field. There was a very large number of samples of potatoes, early and late, and all of excellent quality, in fact St. John gentlemen, without asking the price, offered of their own accord $1.00 a barrel for some delivered at the station here.

On the right was an exhibit of harness, saddles, bridles, horse rugs, mats and waggons, far robes, lap robes, belts, whips, and all the paraphernalia requisite in a well kept livery stable or gentleman's coach house. These were of various kinds, and of surprising fellow workmanship. Mr. Leggett, and, although there was no price offered, he reaped a rich harvest by sales of his articles on the grounds, and he well deserved the compliment of being called a successful exhibitor, but also tastefully arranged.

The central table on this side showed the best and latest of our farmers' wives. These were handsome cloths and blankets, woven on handlooms, and of various patterns; some of them were of fine quality, and of surprising fellow workmanship. Mr. Leggett, and, although there was no price offered, he reaped a rich harvest by sales of his articles on the grounds, and he well deserved the compliment of being called a successful exhibitor, but also tastefully arranged.

On the table were samples of eggs and butter, all of the first class, and many samples of home-made bread and other articles. The butter was of fine quality, and of surprising fellow workmanship. Mr. Leggett, and, although there was no price offered, he reaped a rich harvest by sales of his articles on the grounds, and he well deserved the compliment of being called a successful exhibitor, but also tastefully arranged.

THE PEOPLE'S DRY GOODS AND CLOTHING WAREHOUSE. Chatham and Newcastle.

J. D. Creaghan, J. D. Creaghan.

Immense Purchase, Immense Purchase.

NEW BLANKETS, NEW BLANKETS, and have marked them all at