A PLEASING SURPRISE

Last evening a number of young people of the city engaged in a very pleasant sleigh drive about the city and suburbs. After enjoying the evening in the drive they called at the residence of Uriah Belyea, of the city line (West End, where lunch was served. William Simpson, on behalf of those present, presented Mrs. Belyea with a handsome set of china, after which the balance of the evening was spent very enjoyable with the usual games and singing and dancing was indulged in.

MILLIGAN V. CROCKET.

In circuit court this morning after the arraignment of Goodspeed the case of Milligan v. Crocket was called. Mr.
McKeown, for the plaintiff, said that the witnesses in the case had been subpoenaed, but an important one had not arrived, so he asked for postponement until two o'clock. Mr. Allan, for the defendant, agreed.

It was reported a few days ago that the case would not again be heard of in the courts. Mr. Crocket states that it was arranged by counsel that the plaintiff was to withdraw the suit, and to pay all the costs in connection therewith. Mr. Milligan contradicted this statement when it was made at the time, and he asserts that he heard of on with the suit. The defendant claims to be able to substantiate all that he said in connection with the Rothery list, and much more, too. In that case interesting developments may be expected. Mr. Crocket states that he will fight the case to the end, and his fighting the case will be well known. It is still thought by some that pressure will be brought to bear to prevent exposures which might be inconvenient on the eve of an election.

Hon. Mr. McKeown said this afternoon that the absence of a material witness prevented him from going on.
The case was postponed till next circuit.

At the request of W. W. Allan, the case of McKay v. Fraser was stood over until the next circuit.

THAT USELESS SAND.

The few specimens of sand which the street department have dug out the past day or two been sprinkling on the icy pavements, have been of a quality entirely useless for the purpose of preventing accidents. The sand was of a very fine quality and instead of fulfilling its mission was successful only in sticking to the shoes of pedestrians.
This being the case, with this small proportion of sand being used, the aldermen went to the director of public works and said things which are most politely expressed as follows:

The result was that teams were sent to Knox's sand bank at Silver Falls and a supply of coarse sand has been hailed to the city. With this a small proportion of salt has been mixed and the material now being used on the streets is of more service than the first supply.

TWENTY YEARS AGO TODAY.

Work was commenced in hauling sand and stone for the new exhibition building.

William McKinney was committed for trial for breaking into Keirstead's store on the Marsh Road.

The movement in favor of erecting a new opera house calls forth much opposition, and many communications supporting and opposing the project appear in the papers.

Arthur Underhill, who was to have been married, after procuring the ring and license and furnishing his house, left hurriedly for Montreal.

The parish of Lancaster was granted a third representative in the municipal council.

GOOD NEWS EXPECTED.

Mayor White declines to make any statements for publication, with reference to the present agitation for harbor improvements. He has recently returned from Upper Canada and will this forenoon report to the committee of the council the result of his trip.
The meeting will be a private one, as the mayor believes it is unwise to say too much while as yet nothing has been actually accomplished. It is learned, however, that there is hope of much benefit from the present movement.

LOTS OF GRAIN.

There are now in the C. P. R. elevator at Sand Point 59,687 bushels of grain in the cars on the Bay Shore track an additional 37,000 bushels. This is by far the largest quantity stored on the West Side at any time during the present season, and is due to the scarcity of ships during the past few days. By the end of this week it is expected that the quantity of grain now in the elevator will be materially reduced, as several ships will receive shipments.

BON VOYAGE.

Louis Peterson, Mrs. Peterson and Ida Jodrey, the three occupants of the beer shop on Water street, who were mixed up in the recent Reed's Point assault case, have left for a happier home. They called on the St. Croix this morning for Boston and hope never to come back. Their loss will be borne with that sublime resignation which is a peculiar characteristic of the people of St. John.

A SPLENDID CARNIVAL.

The carnival in the Carleton open air rink last evening was a great success.
There was good ice, a band, a great crowd, and a great variety of costumes. The prizes went as follows: Gentlemen's prize, gold watch and chain, Allen Appleby.
Ladies' prize, marble clock, Miss Dodge.

BURIED TODAY.

The funeral of the late Edward Quinn was held at half past eight o'clock this morning from the Church of the Assumption, Carleton, Requiem high mass was celebrated by Rev. J. J.
O'Donovan, and the body was interred in the Catholic cemetery at Sand Cove.

This afternoon the funeral of Mrs.
Riley, wife of Hiram Riley, was held from her home in Carleton. Rev. W.
H. Sampson conducted the service and interment was in Cedar Hill.

39 MONTHS.

Goodspeed Goes to the Reformatory for That Time.

Pleaded Guilty of Burglary Indicment This Morning—Charge as Accessory Will be Dropped.

Fred Goodspeed this morning pleaded guilty to the crown's indictment against him for burglary and was sentenced this afternoon by Chief Justice Tuohy to thirty-nine months in the Industrial Home.

In pronouncing sentence the chief justice said he had first intended to give Goodspeed a term in the penitentiary but had changed his mind. He gave the youth a lot of advice and counselled him not to try to escape but to try and become a good man.

Speaking of the Higgins case he declared Higgins should have been hanged.

The charge of accessory after the fact has been practically dropped. Although no open agreement has been made, the crown authorities let it be understood that since the boy has to serve a sentence on the other counts they will make no further mention of the charge on which they failed this week to secure a conviction.

So far as the courts are concerned the curtain has now gone down on the last act of the Doherty tragedy. It is just four months and a half since, to the muttering echo of the four shots that broke the summer stillness of Lovers' Lane, it went up. Since that time the body of the murdered boy has been found, identified and buried. His murderer has been brought to justice, sentenced to the rope and at the last minute reprieved and sent to spend the rest of his life in penitentiary. Now that the grave charge against the only witness to the deed has been dropped and the witness himself, on another count is dropped out of the public eye for some time to come, the public may be allowed to forget, if they can, the darkest page in the history of the present generation in this province.

The prisoner was formally arraigned in circuit court at a few minutes after eleven o'clock this morning. He took his seat in the dock looking as healthy, but a little more serious than usual. At the request of the crown the indictment charging him with breaking and entering and stealing from the stores of Phillips & Foley and of D. A. Kennedy was formally read to him.

He pleaded guilty.

The chief justice deferred passing sentence until after recess, as he said some further facts had been presented to him this morning which demanded consideration before he could come to a definite decision regarding the sentence.

Mrs. Goodspeed and her daughters, and Mrs. Brooks, of Salem, were present, and while the justice talked of passing sentence they wept quietly.

The court reassembled after recess, when the prisoner was again brought into court. He received his sentence quietly and immediately afterwards was taken back to his cell.

TWELVE MONTHS JAIL.

Fred King, Theodore Morrison and Samuel Stone, who pleaded guilty to the charge of aggravated assault upon Fred Globe, were brought before the chief justice this afternoon for sentence.

They were sentenced to twelve months in jail.

held at half past eight o'clock tomorrow morning from J. O'Neill's undertaking rooms, Main street.

WORKING TOO HARD.

Police report:—"This forenoon a sled loaded with coal and owned by Gibson & Co. broke down on St. John street."

First it was ice, now it is sand, and still people have to avoid the sidewalks.
