Rev. T. J. Dienstead for Zion POLITICS BLAMED Church — Conference Raise $70,000 for Missionary Purposes

WOODSTOCK, N. B., June 18—There was a large attendance at the afternoon session of the Methodist Conference, which opened at 2 o'clock.

Rev. H. A. Brown was admitted into full ministerial relations.

The annual missionary anniversary took place in the evening with Rev. A. D. McCully in the chair. The exercises were most interesting.

Rev. Dr. Sprague moved the following resolution: On the eve of the departure of the Rev. R. S. Fulton, who has been transferred to the British Columbia conference, this conference, with which he has been connected for fourteen years, from the time of his entrance into the ministry, expresses its sincere regret on account of the the people," declared Morris F. Westholmer, of Clachmett, principal speaker its sincer regret on account of the severance of the relation so long and happily existing. Its appreciation of the superior ability and untiring energy which Brother Fulton has devoted to his work as a minister of the Methodist church and its best wishes for his happiness and success and the welfare of his family in his western relid.

Rev. Geo. Steel introduced to the conference Rev. Jas. Allan, general secretary of the missionary society. Mr. Allan addressed the conference and gave the brethren a good deal of information that will be of great use to them in their work during the coming year.

Mrs. E. C. Turner, representative of the Women's Missionary Society, spoke of the work being done by that society. They decided to send out 10 new workers each year for the next four years. Rev. James Allon and J. N. Harvey also spoke upon the subject, the latter urging that $70,000 be raised next year for missionary purposes.

MONTREAL SHIVER

MONTREAL, June 19.—Montrealers had the inusual experience of having to don heavy overcoats yesterday, the weather being quite cold, while in the morning there was what seemed to the observer to be a snow flurry, but which the McGill observatory officials claim was merely sleet. The atmosphere was chilly throughout the day, the lowest point touched by the thermometer being 44 degrees, while the highest was only 55.5, the coldest June day since 1905.

QUEBEC, June 19—The steamer Campana is not thought to be badly damaged. She is expected to float at high tide today, and be brought here for repairs.

MONTREAL, June 19—The body of A. T. Paterson arrived last night from Flat Lands. He was fishing from a boat with the rod in his hands when he collapsed from heart failure.

Rev. B. N. Nobles, of Victoria Street Baptist Church, and Rev. Gideon Swim, of Waterloo Street Church, will exchange pulpits at the morning service tomorrow.

BOSTON, Mass., June 19.—Chinese sausages are not bolongna sausages, either geographically or commercially, according to a decision today by Judge Lowell, in the United States circuit court today, in upholding the decision of the government appraisers who declared a duty of 25 per cent. on the new imported edibles.

A local Chinese merchant sought to have the sausages from his native country come in as bologna on the ground that they were made like the German product, which are admitted free, but the government decided otherwise.

A big Old Home week is to be held in Montreal September 13th to 20th, and an elaborate programme has been arranged.

OTTAWA, Ont., June 19—An order in 'council was passed this afternoon relieving fishing vessels from all wharfage dues at Sovernment wharves unless such vessels engage in carrying trade.

murdered by a Chinaman, became hysterical.

Elizabeth, or Elsie, was twenty years old and was smally interested in mission work among the Chinamen.

Sun Leong, proprietor of the restaurant, who also conducted the rooming house above disappeared shortly after the discovery of the murder, adding further obstacles to the mystery. The case has unusual features, notably among which is the fact that a Chinaman has been known to call at the Sigel home, presumably with the sanction of the parents.

Elizabeth, or Elsie, was twenty years old and was greatly interested in mission work among the Chinamen. It is understood that she became acquainted with one Chinaman who may be able to throw some light on the case, several years ago, when he conducted a cane-rack at an amusement park at Fort George. The Sigel home in Wadsworth Avenue, the Bronx, is not far away from the resort. Neighbors said tonight that the calls of the Chinaman at the house ceased more than a year ago. Chinaman at the house ceased more than a year ago.

Mrs. Paul Sigel, at 1.30 o'clock this morning, when shown the jewelry found in the trunk containing the body of the murdered girl in a Chinese rooming house in Eighth avenue, identified it as that worn by her daughter Elsie.

At times he has fits of depression and anger. He walks about his apartments talking loudly to himself. He is under the impression that he is being slowly done to death, and complains that his allowance is not enough.

He smokes cigarettes all the day, and takes great care of his clothes and his personal appearance. Every day he dyes his hair and puts fresh touches of rouge and powder on his haggard, furrowed face.
