

PROVINCIAL NEWS.

MAUGERVILLE. Oct. 16.—Sunbury county court was opened at the court house, Burton, on Wednesday by Judge Wilson. As there was no business the court adjourned.

Another load of those expensive Grand Lake stone is being discharged at the lower wharf from woodboat Leah D. The cost and charges of this cargo placed on the bank of the river for the protection of the road will amount to about $2 per wagon load, or four times the price former were allowed by the government where hauled off their own lands. Some places are being double paved, while other places are left to wash away. The whole affair bears a strong political complexion.

Another week will see the end of the rafting operations at the Mitchell boom.

The following students of the Normal School were entertained by Mrs. D. C. Dykeman on Saturday: The Misses Annie McLean, Flora Tingley, Bessie Kearney, Louella Chapman, Carrie Avey, Sara Hoar and Charles Hoar, who came down on the Victoria and returned on the David Weston. The company was joined by Mrs. Gunter, the Misses Miles, Miss Perkins and Mr. Doak, who drove down from the city.

Miss Mary Dykeman returned home today from a very pleasant visit to her sister, Mrs. Edgar of Boston. Mrs. Fred D. Miles, who has been visiting Mrs. A. R. Miles, returned home today. Miss M. L. Magee and Miss Hattie Brown are home for a few days.

A. T. Currie, the well known book agent, was here recently from Sussex.

HOYT, N. B., Oct. 17.—A supper and fancy sale was given by the ladies of the Free Baptist church in the hall at Dixville on Thanksgiving night. Quite a number was present and the evening was enjoyed by all.

Dr. Dundas is making extensive improvements about his premises. Workmen are busy making a terrace wall and building an addition to the cottage, the basement of which is already completed. The doctor intends having a furnace and hot water heating.

William E. Dibble of Welsford, Queens county, will occupy for the winter the place vacated by Thomas G. Kelly, who left for the west on Oct. 13th.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. William Slater of Sand Brook was the scene of a wedding on Wednesday evening, Oct. 15th, when the bride, Miss Annie, was united in marriage to William P. Eastwood of Patterson. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. T. O. Devereux.

The Rev. W. O. Kierstead has been engaged by the Free Baptists for the ensuing year.

MILLTOWN, Oct. 16.—An extremely pretty home wedding took place last evening at the home of Mrs. Frank N. Carter, St. Stephen, when their daughter, Miss Miss Jeanette Helen, was united in marriage with Aubrey P. Dewar, of this place. The house was prettily decorated with masses of holly and evergreen. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Mr. Robertson, pastor of the St. James Presbyterian church, only friends and relatives being present. To the strains of the wedding march, which was played by Mrs. J. B. Sutherland, the groom entered the parlor, attended by the bride, leaning on the arm of her father. The bride looked very graceful and pretty in a beautiful gown of brown broadcloth, with cream satin and chiffon trimmings, carrying a shower bouquet. After the ceremony congratulations followed and a sumptuous banquet was held. The wedding presents were beautiful and numerous. The groom's gift to his bride was a brooch set with amethyst and pearls. Among the prominent gifts were a piano from the bride's father, a dining room set from Mrs. J. B. Sutherland, a mirror and chair, Mrs. J. K. Laidin, a Morris chair, Mrs. Bertha Dewar, a music cabinet by the Calais M. E. church, the choir of which the groom is chorister, and many other valuable presents. The Sun extends hearty congratulations.

FREDERICTON, N. B., Oct. 17.—Solomon McFarlane of Southampton, York Co., dropped dead at the office of Mr. Whitehead, M. P. P., at 10.30 this morning. He was conversing with Mr. Whitehead and fell off the chair and was dead when picked up. He was about 75 years of age and leaves a widow and family. He was well known all over the country and prominent in road and bridge building work.

MONCTON, N. B., Oct. 17.—Amende Guezen, 70 years of age, living on Steadman street, died quite suddenly of heart failure this morning about 10 o'clock. Mr. Guezen worked as a shoemaker, but after eating his supper and while taking a smoke he complained of feeling unwell. He continued to grow worse and passed away this morning. Deceased leaves a wife and two daughters.

SMITHTOWN, Kings Co., N. B., Oct. 16.—A concert and pie social was held at the Smithtown Hall, Kings Co., on the 14th inst., under the auspices of the M. G. T. The programme consisted of: Chorus, Men of Harlech, by choir; reading, Mr. Mack's Dinner, by Miss Darragh; dialogue, Dad Says So, by Anyhow, by Miss Darragh and Cyrus Bull; song, Under the Willow, by H. Smith; reading, Marley's Ghost, Rev. C. D. Schofield; dialogue, 1776-1876, by Miss N. Bell and Miss K. O. Gray; chorus, Beautiful Star; speech, by Rev. J. M. Gladstone; dialogue, Taking the Census, by W. C. Darragh; Laura Yeomans, Jessie Robinson, Olga Fowler, and Miss K. O. Gray; song, Old Black Joe, sung and personated by W. C. Darragh, Mrs. W. H. Robinson presided at the organ. The pie sold well, the proceeds being twenty-six dollars and fifty-five cents, which is to help build the wall under the hall. Robert Cotter acted as chairman and auctioneer.

APPOHAQUI, Oct. 17.—Service was held in the Church of the Ascension last evening. Rev. Canon Richardson of St. John preached. The church was prettily decorated with vegetables, grain, fruit and autumn leaves. Ira Wanamaker, son of J. J. H. Wanamaker, who has been seriously ill in Toronto, was some better yesterday. The workshop of the late Robert Williams, which has been closed for nearly a year, has been rented by Mr. Crawford of Norton. He has removed his family to one of Jones Bros' new tenement houses.

Wm. Abrams and daughter, of Moncton, spent Thanksgiving here. Mrs. J. Campbell went to Moncton on Thursday to visit her son.

MONCTON, Oct. 17.—Word was received here of a fatal accident at the Nappan Jubilee coal mine on Wednesday afternoon, the victim being Park-er Claire, son of Joseph Claire of the I. C. R. shops, this city. Claire was twenty years old. It appears he was on a coal car, which jumped the rails, fracturing his skull and causing death.

NORTHEAST, Northumberland Co., Oct. 16.—Fall work is progressing very rapidly and threshing machines in use. Another week will have completed work. Oats are a fair crop. Potato diggers are also hard at work. The yield is poor in most places owing to the rot. Beef cattle command a high price. Chickens 50 cents per pair, geese $1 each. Turkeys will bring a good price later on. There are a large number of lumber teams on the portage road this fall, fracturing the road and causing much trouble. Oats are a fair crop. Telephone poles have been erected between Newcastle and Red Bank, and men are now putting up the wires. Ed Mendes has gone as guide to another party of sportsmen. Moose and caribou are plentiful this season, and sportsmen have had good success.

Miss Lillian McLean of Whitbyville and Richard Clouston of Derby were married at the Red Bank manse on Oct. 1st. Miss Josie Clouston, sister of the groom, was bridesmaid, and Richard Clouston was best man. The bride looked charming. Rev. J. D. Murray performed the ceremony, after which the happy couple drove to Newcastle. Supper was served at the Union hotel, where a number of invited guests were present. The bride and groom were very happy. They drove to the future home, Derby. We join with the friends in wishing the young people many happy days of wedded bliss.

R. P. Whitney has recovered from his recent illness. Miss Tweedie has resigned her school in Whitbyville, and Miss Crocker of Millerton is filling her place. Miss Estella Keating is at present in town. Richard Scott has retired to the woods.

RICHIBUCTO, Oct. 18.—Mrs. J. J. Black and Miss Sylvia Black, who have been visiting various parts of the province during the past two months, have returned home.

Thanksgiving services were held in the Presbyterian and Methodist churches.

Mr. O'Leary and wife are on a trip to Montreal. Mrs. Campbell, merchant of Rexton, returned on Thursday from the Royal Victoria Hospital, Montreal.

J. & T. Jardine's two topmast schooner Hazelwood, which has been undergoing extensive repairs at Detroit, arrived in port on Thursday. The schooner Jeanette sailed for Charlottetown this morning with lumber.

Mrs. J. P. Hagan returned yesterday from a visit to Moncton. Several outside parties were in this locality during the week hiring men for the woods.

MECHANIC'S SETTLEMENT, Oct. 17.—Rev. Mr. Smith preached in the church here last Sunday evening. Harvesting is about completed and remarkably good crops are reported. Robert Lockhart had an auction of live stock at his residence on Wednesday, 15th. Rapid sales and high prices were the result.

Mr. Allan, pastor of the Methodist church, held a missionary meeting on the 15th. He was assisted by Revs. Fisher and Manaton, former pastors of this church. On Thursday, Rev. Mr. Polley, Presbyterian, held a Thanksgiving service in the church, which had been appropriately decorated for the occasion. The choir sang several beautiful selections.

Mrs. D. Gray, who has been dangerously ill, is recovering under the treatment of Dr. Murray of Sussex.

HOPEWELL HILL, Oct. 17.—Commissioner Smith has a crew at work re-constructing the aboudee on the Delta marsh, which was destroyed by the tides when nearly completed.

Wm. H. Bennett, who has spent the summer in Boston, returned to his home at Lower Cape this week. Miss Dora Bennett returned on Wednesday from Newfoundland, where she has been visiting relatives. Mrs. C. Allison Peck of Hillsboro has returned from a two months' visit to Philadelphia.

AN OBSTINATE CASE OF ECZEMA. Mr. W. D. Johnson, Tilsonburg, Ont., writes that his father was entirely cured of a long standing and obstinate case of Eczema by the use of Dr. Chase's Ointment. His leg and foot were a mass of sores that refused to heal and he suffered terribly from the itching and stinging. Though he used a great many remedies and was treated by first-class doctors no permanent relief was obtained until he used Dr. Chase's Ointment. His leg and foot were a mass of sores that refused to heal and he suffered terribly from the itching and stinging. Though he used a great many remedies and was treated by first-class doctors no permanent relief was obtained until he used Dr. Chase's Ointment.

LETTERS FROM THE PEOPLE. To the Editor of the Sun: Sir—Owing to information which has reached them, the authorities of McGill University, Montreal, think it necessary to warn the public that that university has no connection whatever with any School of Correspondence. Students holding diplomas from any such School of Correspondence are not thereby entitled to any privileges or exemptions on entering McGill University. Yours faithfully, J. A. NICHOLSON, Registrar.

NATIONAL COUNCIL OF WOMEN. Kingston, Oct. 18th.—The executive board of the Women's National Council met here yesterday in private session to consider business. A public gathering was held last night at which many were present and addresses delivered by Miss Peters, of St. John, N. B.; Lady Taylor, Toronto; Miss Laidlaw, Montreal, and other ladies.
