POOR COPY

WOOMStarlk Jumnal.

IIfe is a Freeman whom the Truth maken irree, And all ave Staves beside?"

LUME 6.

WOODSTOGK, N. B., THLRSDAT, NOVEMBER $24,1859$.
NCMBER 21.

whose genoral reading, and experience in the world, had matured their judgapproved acoordingly, and no great evil could arise.. Bat upon the minds of the could arise. Bat upon the minds of the young it is otherwiso, for it is much asier to Aeny a prineiple or? dootrin than to prove it, and ridicule will often have a greater infuence on their minds han argament; therefore the circula ion of infidel and heterodox opinions, contrary to thons whioh are considered the newspapers of the diy, can in my Liberty to be enjoyed must be under evil than to do right, hen se the neoessity of laws to reefrain wrong-doers. Lnws are restrictions upon liberty, not to the spurinus and free thinking liberty that was disseminatod by the writings of the school of Valtaire and Rousseau, narchy and horrors of the first. French volution-the fratbs of revealed region, were ridiculed and treated with contempt, murder and rapine deloged France with blood, while honors and worstip wore paid to the Goddess of anbear liberty Holding such views I have merely to add that if you are determined to of the nature allndea to, I must withdraw my nama from your subscription hist, and at the samic time request you upon reflection and consultation with those friendly to your paper you may decide otherwise, I remain

Yours very truly, R. D. WiLsot. STEPHENSON AND BRUNEL. The cuinciuence of their heaths is trivial circamstances which induces us t consider the lives of Stephenson and Bru nel in their relations to each other ap wel as to the world, but the comparison suggestive in ittelf. Startitig in life with names that had alrendy beer made widely known , they noon distanced all competit ors in the pursuit of fome, nna the profee. binzz if celebrity. Because they wer both ergineers, and famous, it has bee thought they must necessarily be rivals and injudicious netempte have been maci to estallish the pre-eminence now of on 10 establiah the pre-eminence now of on life were sn distinet that on'y during ":he batile of the gauges" were their intereste in any wry opposed. The circumataneea under which the professional life of rach was hegun are eurimustly suggestive of carers nupening hefore them. beon impossibilities to any man hut hi mountable in the Thames Tunnel, the ase ciated his name with an ashievement world wide fame, which remained as monument to science but a warning capitaliats. Stepl.enson at the anme fim was steadily workingin his father's fnetory Was Nownenste, and tairly engaged in th great lifa-long thakk of perfeciring tocomn ive enfiner. Fnch mat was imbihing th gitand nd versatile Sir Isambard, Steplhen. son insensibly acquiring that pation:, un-

| take the soldier and the silitor. Their |
| :--- |
| professions soem' wo the young and the | proessions vory glorious, but to the rest, thoughtloss vory

of the world they appear a hideous neces.-- And riny thing more dall, form their carrerer, canrinot well be imaginined. heast, so they are pleased oo tell us the least, so they are pleaspd to tell us them. solves, and see no reeso whaterer for doubting their word. The trader, the ortizan, the laborev, the elienk, heve each very parrow sphere to net in. Por th very parrow sphere to not to tor best most part thep.soon learn to do the they oan in th.oir rospeetive obeupations. artibt and the man of letters. They saeen to liave a very wide feld, but it doos pot on turn out to be so wide as we shold have oxpeocted. Soon hey flid out heíi speci-they repeat theasedves inde finitel az, until their generous patron, the world, becones tired of their doings and of them. Over $\qquad$ inemnity; the wheels of life drag heavily, and the man, as he lies down to rosi, thinhs with a sigh that he has done nothing to-day betrer, or more to the purpose, than he did yesterday, and that to norrow't obecupation will be evon as to did's There is quite as much vanity and dily in men's most sorious mork ent ighteat play ind moss triyial pleasures, Alse ased of in a singile sentence, by say ding, as we an with truith, that even in Malta, with plenty of money th , their Malta thus defscribes them :

"They are to bé seen in all directions. was earnival time - many it r fong toge, Jim Crow hats, othars in Bell toppere, wit) holes cut in them, or wreathe round them in short, anything different to other peo ple. Many have been driving about in the rery best carriages that could be hired and having goods sent out to their carriages to chnose from; driving to the garden of the Cafe de la Reine, having ice creams and wafers sent to their carriage elting tim with the one masefl, and driving off fanning themselven in tho most inckadaisical style. At the opera it was theik acting, not that of the performers, that the audience had to attend to. Most had some extraorainary pets-young pigs with spectactes on, little dogs dressed up, rabbits, monkeys, &ce; these occaoionally gave chase, climbing in the most extraordinary maner in whnt appeared to he impossible places. Pigeons, fowlo and eats hit escaped were comparaively harmess? and dugs-varied oscasionatly with the erowing of some of the coxks-that pre vented the possibility of attending to the music. The sailors do not underatand Itatian, nor are they xoskained by any false modesty io letting that fact bo knownThe demand for an Eug ilish eong wastre were pameri, and many staves from Dibdin's were volunteered by the sailors themselves, Ionna did not understand Euglish, for some of the remarks and criticisms were entleman ir the pit tonk some trouble to translate one of the songs as it was sung. bottise of ruan were pasged to him to drink from. He thought to escape by snying he conld not drink out of a boisile. In an spirics, whieh noprly took hig preath away and by way of restoring him the sailors gave him some hearty slaps with theie im fearfully. The old gentleman at lag nade his oscapo from fili friends, who, a for his old woman at hiome. These scenes are pleasingly varied in the thentro with ral foes, the police, who have a long and atanding hatred to each other. If Jaolk gets the upper hand the main guard is That thiose who hiave been fightidi some dozun sailors who cannot move, die totally unconscions from the effeot ho carry them unresiating to tho police orice. The next morning the sailors, with empty pockets, are brought before a Maltane magistrate, who had about the samio he ceremony before hit for a mousevery short ; neither party understands a word the other says, and it saves muoh Jock aceordingly gets a number of dayse imprisol:ment, or is taken to his ship by ortheom, whis receive a pound from Jack's Sin Janks Crahk. - The retirement of Sir James Clark from his office of persoral sever sente ago, and has therofore hai tendance, accompanying the Court to Windsor, Osborne and Balmoral, and reg. ularly travelling with Her Majedy in her trips to Ireland, Belgium, France and xcursions in the royal racht. Althuygh at the births of the royal children the proCalled in, yet the Queen was always com sonal physieian up to the moment Dr. Lo. able, and Sir James always signed the officia! bulletins frrst. In addition to hio ames was also attached to that of the Prince Consort snd the Duchess of Kent and has had the sole miedical directon of loss, therefore, of so olea and confidentual a amily medica! adriser is much fett by the Boyal Family; but some few years ago Sir James had a revere antack of illness, tire froin his constant dinily anter.dances al in his important daties by Dr. Baly, who has been gradually initiated in the routine of his duties by the retiring baronet, Por Ahts purpose Dr. Bely was in attendanee Osborne this summer, and again joine the suite of Her Majosty at Bulmoral, where Sir James was also on duty, and the idered to have entered on tho duties and esponsibilities of his office in attendiog hor Majesty on her return journey from Baimoral to Holyrood, flemrhy. Castle,and Windsor Custle. - Court Journaih Vixice.- - A letter from Venice of Oct.
2 in the opinion Nationalo gives the folowing siarting arcount of the deplorable taie to which the Austrian rule has redu ed the city: The number of destituto of eharity amounts to the friphtful goure Add to this that there are many ppor who are ashamed to register themselvel. Then remember that the entire ponalation of Venice is now reduced to 105,000 souia and you wil form some fulea of ve what of misory into which wo have fallen.

