DENOMINATIONAL NEWS.

All money from Nova Scotia contributions for Denominational Work, or any part of it, should be sent to Rev. A. C. HARRIS, Treasurer, 125 St. John Street, St. John, N. B.

BUCCHON, KENT Co.—Merry drops falling; organized B. Y. P. U.; two more baptized, others coming.

R. H. SYMONS. BARNSTON, SHELBURNE Co.—Received into the fellowship of this church by baptism the wife of Capt. Stillman Malone. C. I. McLANE, Nov. 17.

EAST POINT, P. E. I.—I had the pleasure of baptizing and receiving into the fellowship of the East Point church, Mrs. Theodore Stewart and Mrs. Harland Kennedy, sisters. Since our last report sister Minnie Garrett has been received by letter. We thank God for these additions and are hoping they will soon join them in the hope of heaven.

Nov. 26. CHARLOTTETOWN.—We received by letter, sister Mary Smith; the first Sunday in Oct. Just now Messrs. Crossley and Hunter are in the midst of a series of services in our city. They are doing good faithful preaching, and the work of conversion in Christ. The interest is deepening. A number have already signified their willingness to follow Christ. The effort is one of union. Methodist, Presbyterian, Baptist and Disciples are engaging. We are praying for a blessing to come to ourselves and ask friends to unite in this prayer.

C. W. COSBY. GIBSON, N. B.—Since sending you any news from this church, we have had some taken of the Divine favor. On Nov. 3rd, we received Charles Bleakney and his wife on letters. Nov. 24th seven young men were baptized and two were received on experience. Their names are as follows: George Bailey, Enoch Christy, Albert Colwell, Harold Colwell, Guy Miles, John Miles, Murray Morehouse, Stanley Brewer and Mrs. Stanley Brewer. The last two named were received on experience. We are continuing our special meetings this week and ask your prayers that we may receive a still larger blessing.

F. D. DAVIDSON. SECOND ELGIN CHURCH.—On Nov. 2nd at our request, Bro. S. D. Ervine came to assist us in special work. On Sunday 3rd, he preached for us three times, and after the morning service I had the privilege of baptizing one happy believer in the Lord. On the 6th we started special meetings at 2nd Elgin church, Little River section, and our Bro. labored hard with us until the 14th, when he received word that his sister was very ill and requested him to come home, during his time with us several started in the meetings and one Bro. gave himself up to Christ. Although Bro. Ervine left us the Lord did not, and on the 16th I baptized two in the forenoon at 2nd Elgin, and one in the afternoon at 3rd Elgin. Brethren pray for us.

A. A. RUTLEDGE. RICHMOND, CARLETON Co.—We are hoping and praying for better times, and spiritual than we are at present enjoying. The prayer meetings in both churches are kept up, and so are the conference meetings, but the attendance of members seems to be governed by feeling and the state of the weather. There are, however, a faithful few, who can be depended on under all circumstances, and we highly appreciate them for their zeal and help. Our Sunday services are more encouraging; the attendance is good, and the singing and praying; good attention paid to the sermon, in fact everything seems to be better than the preaching, but as the people are good natured and not disposed to criticize, we are satisfied to remain as we are on the field, which makes the fourth one since we came among this kind people. During the more than three years of our sojourn here, we have been treated most kindly, and this undeserved kindness should be a sign of abatement. May the Lord bless the dear people of Richmond, revive the churches, and save souls, is our prayer.

The establishment of a School of Industry in Quebec City for the winter months is contemplated.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT.

The pastor at Chipman, N. B., desires to make mention of a recent fraternal visit of church members and friends to the parsonage. After all had been served with supper he was presented by Mr. G. G. King, on behalf of the company, with a fur coat and sleigh robe. This will help to make winter pleasanter and driving more attractive.

NOTICES. The Lunenburg County District meeting will be convened on Tuesday, Dec. 10th, 3 p. m., at Lakesville. An urgent invitation is extended for the presence of all interested. A programme of special interest is being drafted, and business of vital moment to the welfare of our county will be considered.

Henry ALFORD RAYNE. Bridgewater, N. S., Nov. 18.

The churches are requested to take notice that the P. E. I. Baptist Conference did not meet at North River Nov. 18th and 19th, but will meet at North River on Monday, and Tuesday, December 30 and 31st. As this is the annual business meeting at which matters of importance are to come up, a large attendance is requested. Delegates will be met at Charlottetown station and conveyed to North River, by Mr. C. Higgins, Secretary.

The next session of the Carleton, Victoria and Madawaska Co's. quarterly meeting will be held with the Albert street Baptist church, Woodstock, on the third Friday in December. Preaching by Rev. H. Senator Boulton, dissident Conservative, has published in Winnipeg an open letter to Premier Bovey, in which he objects to remedial legislation, also to protection.

The Naval Architect who designed the ocean racers, the Paris and the New York, has written for the next volume of The Youth's Companion an account of a possible steamer that may cross the Atlantic in four days or less, liquid fuel being used.

Oct. 11th last Saturday was a striking object lesson in the value of advertising. The crowds came early and kept at it all the day, and they had to be patient, too, for the extra force of clerks could not begin to serve all as quickly as they wished. It was the "biggest" sale this place has ever had. Their doors are still open and bargains are the order of the day.

Our lady readers who are interested in Christmas kid gloves (and most ladies are) will be pleased to read in this issue the advertisement of the St. John Paris Kid Glove Store—W. H. Faircl & Co. The reputation of this house for kid gloves of every description, is very widely known, and needs no comment. They send gloves prepaid by post to any address.

Never Swap Horses When Crossing A Stream.

Don't even swap your money for a condition powder unless you know something about the powder of the man who makes it. Take no chances on strange horses or strange medicines, or you may have reason to regret it. Buy where you can go back next day and get back your money if disappointed. This is what we offer, but you won't go back; you will be too well satisfied to leave our reputation unimpaired.

Manchester's Tonic Condition Powder

Is the standard horse medicine in the Provinces to-day. Strengthening, appetizing, cleanses the system of worms, thoroughly purifies the blood, leaving the horse in perfect condition and with a skin like velvet. We make our reputation on it and guarantee results.

Take no other.
