SAILS BIG SCHOONER.

Hazel Phipps Graduate of Acadia University, Wolfville, Says it is Simply Great—Other Shipping News.

Baltimore, Md., Aug. 14.—No girl's education is complete without a term or so of seafaring life, declares Miss Phyllis, who have been in Ottawa and Montreal to urge improvements in the West India service, returned home yesterday.

Mr. Estabrooks, president of the Board of Trade, and H. B. Schofield, who have been in Ottawa and Montreal to urge improvements in the West India service, returned home yesterday.

to give the public any information about their mission, and Mr. Schofield was equally reticent.

"A British subject I was born; a British subject I will die." With these noble words Sir John A. Macdonald carried the country and a few weeks later passed over to the great majority. He died as he was born, a true British subject, and twenty years later Sir Wilfrid Laurier allows Fielding and Paterson to resurrect the infamous annexation policy. That the Laurier party may meet the same fate as it did in 1891 should be the aim of every loyal Canadian.

"I relieve father on the quarterdeck and at the wheel, and to be in command of the schooner is simply great. When I shout the orders to the men through a megaphone I feel like a full-fledged captain. I am thoroughly conversant with every detail about the vessel, the charts and the compass I have steered the schooner for hundreds of miles. I can sail her free in a running breeze or reef her down in a squall.

"Then to meet people of other worlds and study them is an education that you cannot acquire through books. On our last visit to St. Thomas I was invited to a banquet aboard a Danish training ship. I had several dances with a Danish prince and I had the most enjoyable evening of my life."

"BORDEN'S BOUND TO WIN, BOYS"

Air—"There's nae luck about the house."

There's something in the air, boys; there's something in the air, boys; that's the coming fight, boys; for victory prepare.

From North and South, from East and West, returns are coming in. That Borden's going to win, boys; that Borden's bound to win, boys; Chorus—From North and South, &c.

Tooust the Laurier crowd, boys; to sack the Laurier crew, boys; Instead of traitors false, boys; we'll have the tried and true.

So stand by Borden's side, boys; stand through thick and thin; For Borden's going to win, boys; yes, Borden's bound to win, boys; Chorus—So stand by Borden's side, boys, &c., &c.

Too long have we been robbed, boys; J. Jones have been betrayed. Upon our treasure chest, boys; have greedy hands been laid.

But this will have to stop, boys; when honest men are in; For Borden's going to win, boys; yes, Borden's bound to win, boys; Chorus—But this will have to stop, boys, &c., &c.

No Reciprocity, my boys; upon Sir Wilfrid's plan.

Will Canada accept, boys; we'll fight it to a man.

Our fealty to yield, boys; would be a grievous sin.

For Borden's going to win, boys; yes, Borden's bound to win, boys; Chorus—Our fealty to yield, &c., &c.

St. John is now in line, boys; well in the firing line.

Doc, Daniel and Powell, boys; your candidates, and mine.

When all the votes are cast, boys; and all returns are in.

The Grits will then admit, boys, our men were bound to win.

Chorus—Where all the votes are cast, boys, &c., &c.
