Mrs. Charles Houston read a paper on Pauline Johnson and also read one of her poems. Miss Etta DeWolfe read a poem entitled "England," which was greatly enjoyed. Owing to the lateness of the hour a paper on Sir Gilbert Parker, by Miss Mary Campbell, and another by other members of the club, unfortunately had to be omitted. Refreshments were served at the close of the programme. The hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Walter De Wolfe and Mrs. Chester Gregory. Young lady members of the club served. The Girl Guides were the guests of the club for the evening. Mrs. Wm. S. Tupper, of Princeton, was the guest of her mother, Mrs. A. J. Watson, during the week. Jerome Bates, of Ganong Bros' staff at Ottawa, is at home and will remain until after Christmas. The "Y" gave a Japanese tea and novelty sale in the Council Chambers on Wednesday afternoon, Nov. 29th, which, beside being a splendid financial success, was a most enjoyable social event. No labor was spared in the decoration of the hall and one was transported into a veritable Japanese tea garden on entering. The walls were hung with beautiful Japanese plaques, lanterns and umbrellas and son. Mrs. H. L. Wall and Mrs. J. D. Lawson, associate members of the society, gave very valuable assistance. Miss Helen Scott provided enjoyable music, both vocal and instrumental which is so necessary at a time of this sort. Those who assisted were robed in dainty and picturesque Japanese costumes, and all looked very sweet and winsome in the becoming gowns.

After the business of the month had been transacted a fine literary programme, of which Miss Louise Purves had charge, was carried out. At the beginning of the programme there was an outline of Canadian authors in general. Mrs. A. E. Vesey gave a very interesting account of the Roberts family. Mrs. Purves gave a fine paper on Bliss Carman and read one of his poems. Mrs. E. V. Sullivan very entertainingly read selections from "The Golden Dog," a story of old Quebec. Miss Emma Vesey read two delightful selections from her own poems. Miss Vesey is our local poet, in whom the town has a great deal of very delightful pride.
