The wind today is southwest and would blow the barrel into the American channel, where it would undoubtedly be broken on the rocks.

Reciprocity Must Pass or An Appeal to the People Will Be Made—Hon. Mr. Fielding Dares Tories to Allow Trade Pact to Be Voted On and Take the Country's Verdict—Hon. Mr. Pugsley Intimates That Closure May Have to Be Adopted.

Special to The Telegraph. Ottawa, July 21—Parliament's proceedings today were fraught with deep significance. They spell an early crisis to the existing government. Both Sir Wilfrid Laurier and Hon. Mr. Fielding spoke with candor, clarity and emphasis, and their utterances were heralded by such a storm of applause as told the overwhelming temper of the Liberal party in every province.

When the minister of finance, immediately following the preliminaries today, moved the house into committee for the further consideration of reciprocity, there was a change in opposition procedure. Instead of the customary launching of time trials by the opposition, the members of the North Grey rose in a new form of complaint. The opposition, he complained, were being branded as obstructionists and all the time the government was preparing for an election.

As a matter of fact, he said, there were fifty-five members of the opposition who had not yet spoken on reciprocity, and he declared that the government had decided to postpone the vote on the tariff bill until after the election. He intimated that the government was in a hurry to get the bill passed before the election, and that the opposition should not be so busy with their tariff legislation in the United States that they had not time to give their views on the bill of reciprocity.
