pushed forward impetuously to offer his congratulations to the monarch, and he was mistaken for another assassin and arrested.

The crowd made a determined attempt to lynch Allegro, who was hurriedly taken into the house and kept there until an automobile, escorted by mounted police, transferred him to police headquarters.

King Alfonso was first to tell of what he lightly called "the incident, which caused delay" to Queen Victoria and the dowager queen, Maria Christina, at the palace, who were greatly alarmed.

He had hardly been back ten minutes when an immense clamor arose. The two trucks on which the police looked were black with people of all classes, and furious of showing their face at the king's safety and their admiration for his display of bravery.

Her condition was described this morning as being very grave. She was removed at once to a nursing home where she was placed under the care of her own doctor.

The woman's social and political union, the organization of the militant suffragettes, was not aware of the intended release of Mrs. Pankhurst, no demonstration took place when she left the jail.

It is said that during the course of his examination, Allegro declared that on seeing the king pass he was seized with a sudden evil impulse and, having a revolver in his possession, he drew it. Driven on by an irresistible force, he sprang forward and fired.

A curious coincidence is found in the fact that the Spanish premier, Count Romanones, last night declared to the press that without foundation alarming rumors which had been circulated in Madrid, regarding the possibility of an attempt against the king today on the occasion of his swearing in of recruits, and relative to the presence in Madrid of several dangerous anarchists.

MRS. PANKHURST RELEASED ON "TICKET-OF-LEAVE"

Suffragette Leader Must Report to Police Often and May Be Arrested on Sight.

London, April 12—Mrs. Emmeline Pankhurst, suffragette leader, was released from Holloway jail this morning after having been on a "hunger strike" since she was sentenced nine days ago, to three years of penal servitude.

Mrs. Pankhurst was released on license under the terms of which she must report at frequent intervals to the police authorities, and in case she commits any misdemeanor she is liable to immediate arrest without a warrant and must then serve her full term of conviction. It is understood that the intention of the authorities is to allow her to be free only until she regains her strength.

Her condition was described this morning as being very grave. She was removed at once to a nursing home where she was placed under the care of her own doctor.
