

67.

---

BILL.

An Act to amend the law for the admission of Barristers, Attorneys and Proctors at Law, in Lower Canada.

WHEREAS by an Act passed by the Preamble. Parliament of Lower Canada, in the sixth year of the Reign of His late Majesty King William the Fourth, and intituled, 5 "An Act to repeal certain parts of an Ordinance therein mentioned, concerning persons to be admitted to practise the Law, or to practise as Notaries in this Province," it is provided, that any person who shall have 10 gone through a regular, complete and continued collegiate course of study, including the courses of Belles Lettres, Rhetoric and Philosophy, (comprising logic, moral philosophy, mathematics, and natural philosophy,) in one, or in 15 several of the Seminaires or Colleges of Quebec, Montreal, Saint Hyacinthe, Nicolet, or Sainte Anne de la Pocatière, or in any other college legally established, or which shall be legally established in this Province, or else-
20 where, in which the said courses of study shall be taught, may be commissioned to practise as a Barrister, Advocate, Solicitor, Attorney or Proctor at Law, in any Courts of civil jurisdiction in the said Province; after 25 having served a regular and continued clerkship for and during the space of four years; And whereas, by an Act passed by the Parliament of this Province, in the Session held in the tenth and eleventh years of the Reign of 30 Her Majesty Queen Victoria, it is enacted, that graduates of any University of the United Kingdom of Great Britain and Ireland, or of any University or College in Upper Canada having the power to grant degrees, may be 35 admitted to practise as Attorneys and Barris-

Act of L. C. 6
Wm. 4, c. 10, cited.