

Manner of recovering the penalties and forfeitures inflicted by this ordinance.

Conviction may be on view, by a commissioner of the peace.

Prosecutions to commence within fifteen days.

VII. All penalties and forfeitures incurred by offences against this ordinance, shall be recovered by information before any one commissioner of the peace, who shall hear and determine the same in a summary manner, upon the oath of one credible witness (being some other than the informer) and shall cause the sum forfeited, together with the costs of suing for the same, to be levied by a warrant under his hand, to seize and sell the goods of the offender; one half of such forfeitures (except in the case of the fifth article) shall belong to his Majesty the King, and the other half to the informer. And it shall be lawful for any commissioner of the peace, to convict any person, guilty of any offence against this ordinance, on his own view of such offence; in which case, the whole forfeiture (except in the case mentioned in the fifth article) shall belong to his said Majesty.

All prosecutions for offences against this ordinance, shall be begun within fifteen days from the commission of the offence.
