Bethune against fee hike

By JOANNE PRITCHARD
 At its meeting January 27 the Bethune College council took a stand against the Ontario government's recent $100 tuition fee increase, saying that "education is a social right and it should be free of monetary restriction and it should be a higher priority in the government's interests than it is at present."

The members of the council also voted to support the February 10 province wide action called by the Ontario Federation of Students to protest the increase. The council decided to take an active part in organizing this moratorium and called on CYSF and the other colleges to do the same in order to make it the biggest success possible. The motion ended by saying that the Bethune College Council believes "that the February 10th moratorium is just a first step in winning a rollback of this tuition fee increase and should be used to build further mass united protests such as the January 21st 1976 demonstration at Queen's Park.

Nader on students

CALGARY (CUP) — There's no reason why Canadian students can't be a real source for change while they're studying, according to US consumer advocate Ralph Nader.

But the reason they should strive for change now is because "once you get out (of school) your ability to reflect and pioneer goes," he told an audience of 400 at the University of Calgary January 23.

Nader said the current trend in education is to turn it "into a trade school practice rather than an intellectually broadening experience.

"All schools teach students is to become good corporate lawyers."

Nader emphasized the need for consumer awareness of banking, taxation, business and industry through education. Students may know a great deal about English poetry or physics he said, "but how many of you can write a 1,000 word essay about the tax system?"

$40 a month and all the anguish you can eat.

Some job description, eh? Forty bucks walking around money. Spending your working hours listening to the wretched pour out their misery.

Our customers cut through every stratum of society. Our territory is all over: prisons, tough bars, squalid rooms jammed with families of five, broadloomed suburban living rooms jammed with everything but hope. All those folk standing in their own garbage.

Those are our people. We try to help them take the garbage and re-cycle it into something useful, rewarding and Christian.

We're helped by a decent education. By intelligence, empathy and a sense of humour. By developing a tough and gentle spirit. By having as a well-spring a rock-like faith in Christ.

Come help us help others to help themselves. It's an extraordinary life for the right kind of man.

Think about it. Then, if you'd like to hear more, write or call us.
