

Hey kids! Here's a contest for you

Novice writers get a chance to have their stories published

Kids and Christmas just naturally go together, and The Times would like to give children the opportunity to tell everyone why they think Christmas is one of the best times of the year.

The Times is sponsoring a Children's Christmas Story contest for elementary school students from kindergarten to Grade 8.

Children should write stories, no longer than 300 words, on "What I Like Best About Christmas". Each entry must be accompanied by the writer's name, age, grade, school and home phone number.

A contest is no fun at all without prizes and we have some great ones lined up, not only for the grand overall winner but also for the winners in each grade. First prize overall is a $100 gift certificate from Leisure World at Square One. Winners in each grade will receive $25 gift certificates from Leisure World.

As a bonus, the winning stories and the best of the rest will be published in a special Times Christmas supplement Dec. 10. Judges for the contest are Times editorial staff — news editor Chris Zelkovich and reporters John Stewart and Mary Louise Birks.

So get out your pencils and start writing! Deadline for entries is noon Friday, Nov. 28. Entries should be mailed to The Mississauga Times, Christmas Story Contest, 2300 South Sheridan Way, Mississauga, Ont. L5J 2M4 or dropped off at the reception desk during business hours.
