MEMORANDUM FOR MR. HEENEY:

Re 1940 Session

I have discussed the matter of a mover and seconder to the reply to the address on the Speech from the Throne with Mr. Pickersgill.

Our joint suggestions are as follows:

To move:

— Marier, Jacques-Carlier, P.Q.

1. L. P. A. Robichaud, Kent, N. B.
2. Rodolphe Leduc, Wright, Que.
3. Georges Bouchard, Kamouraska, Que.
4. A. J. Lapointe, Matapedia-Matane, Que.

It has been thought advisable not to select anyone from the Montreal district in case it might arouse unfounded hopes for a Cabinet post in the mind of the man selected.

I understand that Marier is considered a better speaker than Durocher.

To second the reply to the address: A. L. Thompson of Kent, Ontario, is suggested. Others who might be considered are:

- A. L. Thompson Kent Ont*
- C. E. Bothwell, Swift Current, Sask.
 - R. J. Deachman, Huron North, Ont.
 - J. A. Glen, Marquette, Man.
 - A. G. McAvity, St. John, ~~Alberta~~ N.B.

McAvity is a good speaker and has been elected at a by-election since 1935.
