

disorganized. It was closed from August to Sept. 1st.

The Teacher I found in charge was Miss Sarah Batty. I endeavored to discover from the Agent, and from Miss Batty, who the authorized Teacher was, but neither could inform me, nor could the Agent after he had visited the Mission in question said not. The Rev. Mr. McLaughlin, however, tells me that Mr. Lammie is to be looked upon as the Teacher.
I have before commented upon this gentleman's qualifications. He is a scholarly man, and it is said a most excellent missionary, but he may be both, without being a good teacher, and this I think he is.
Miss Batty, his sister-in-law has the necessary qualifications, some experience
