

OTTAWA, 4th January, 1905-

Sir-

In reply to your letter of the 21st Ultimo, applying for Island 18, or 91 which should be 91, Sing's Survey of Islands in the Georgian Bay, I beg to say that on the 3rd August 1897, Mr. J. S. Darling enclosed a Plan showing Islands 17 and 18, but only made application for Island No 17, upon which he stated he had a cottage erected, which had been occupied for two seasons.

Before any further consideration can be given your application, it will be necessary for you to advise as to whether Island No 18 now number 91, or Island No 17, which is situate immediately to the North is the one you desire to purchase.

Your obedient servant

SECRETARY.

A. W. Mitchell, Esq.,

68 Adams Street,

Chicago,

Ill., U.S.A.
