Ottawa, 1st May, 1918.

Sirs:-

In reply to your letter of the 24th ultimo, I beg to say that the number of the cheque for $51.00 which was sent you on the 2nd August was 224 not 223 as stated in letter of the 22nd April. This Department is requesting the Post Office Department to have the letter with which the cheque was forwarded to you traced, with a view to its recovery if lost in the mail. The cheque has not been cashed, but is still out-standing.

Your obedient servant,

Asst. Deputy and Secretary.
