

Sometimes it is possible to pick up old silver, which, of course, is much finer. It might be that I could have Mr. Roy, or someone else, make a search for me in Toronto. I imagine it would require a search, and the time for anything of the kind would, perhaps, be too short.

Let me know, however, whether you have any thought in the matter. The King pattern is what I use at Laurier House, and I have found it very decorative, as well as serviceable. It helps to make a very pretty table.

Please write me at once just a line, or send a telegram collect, if that will save time.

I think it would be best for me to get the silver here, rather than to have it purchased at Ryries in Toronto. Birks, here and in Montreal, and Ryries in Toronto, are, I understand, under the same management. Whatever is purchased at one place can at any time be duplicated at the other.
