

Leisure time for many months.

We will be in Birnie for ten days as it will be a nice visit and Robert & I brought my maid with me and she and Margaret are out tonight at a skating exhibition and are enjoying each other's company. I'm all at Bardsley's in the in much love and many thanks again for your address and affectionately,
Yours

I've made Willie -

Many thanks for sending Gordon and me the copy of your address given at the dinner in support of the Exhibition. We are very glad to have it in the back of our mind and on reading it again have realized what a truly great speech it is.
