

He came inside. We played accordion for him then he went to Bilthoven to get some ~~smoke~~^{cigarette}. Altogether there were seven, him, another Canadian and all of us. Hank van de Dolder. I went to Bilthoven. ~~when the~~ ¹⁹⁴⁴ We were on the way when the accident happened. We got into the vehicle in the jeep in front of our house. ~~Wendy~~¹⁹⁴⁴ ~~Myself~~¹⁹⁴⁴ I got in myself. I was sitting in the back. She accused was driving. I don't know the speed. It was going fast.

Gross Exam - The soldier came to our house. ¹⁹⁴⁴ We were with your people, Hank van de Dolder, him and another soldier went in the ~~the~~¹⁹⁴⁴ jeep. The accused came on our house alone, then another soldier came along later. It is possible the two came in together. I remember ¹⁹⁴⁴ well. He came alone, later on my sister's ¹⁹⁴⁴ plane with the ~~jeep~~¹⁹⁴⁴. I remember being on an identity parade on the 25 Feb 46 at Hartenradijk ~~and~~¹⁹⁴⁴ ~~there~~¹⁹⁴⁴. I did not identify anyone. I was doubtful at that time. I have not been talking about the case to anyone at anytime or to my family. I never lie. I am not lying now. My sister Gene did not tell me which soldier she had identified. I identified. She told me she had unidentified someone. She did not tell me it was the driver of the jeep. She only said that she recognized one as a Canadian soldier she knew. I don't know how much the jeep slowed down for the corner. It was dark and there was a crash. The jeep did not seem to make much noise. They all came out of the vehicle, my sister had to go away, then I had to go away.

Re-Exam - My sister wear glasses. She had an accident when she was a child.

R.P. (1944) concluded with