PRINCE ARTHUR'S "MAIDEN SPEECH."—The speech made by Prince Arthur, in accepting the address of Mr. Bolckow, at the opening of Middlesborough Albert Park, was this:—"I am very grateful to my dear mother, the Queen, for having allowed me to represent her in the ceremony which we are now assembled to perform. To dedicate to the public use the park which your munificence has provided would, of itself, have been to me a most interesting duty; but on the present occasion is has for me a far deeper and peculiar meaning. This park, which I am sure will contribute largely to the pleasure and happiness of the people of Middlesborough, is to be forever associated with the name of my beloved father; and this mark of respect for his memory, on an occasion when an act for the public benefit is concerned, has truly pleased and touched my dear mother. No one could take a deeper interest than did my beloved father in whatsoever ministered to the health and enjoyment of the people; and I feel quite sure, Mr. Bolckow, that the noble gift which you have made to the town would have been regarded by him, as I am commanded to say it is by the Queen, my dear mother, with the warmest sympathy and approbation. Most sincerely do I join with you in praying that this park may fulfil the object for which it is destined; and with my best wishes, may I add, that you yourself may live long to witness the pleasure you have been the means of bestowing upon the people of Middlesborough."
