AFTERNOON SESSION.

President Smith in the chair.

After devotional exercises, Chancellor Wallace read the Report of the Senate and Board of Governors. The adoption of this report was moved by Chancellor Wallace, seconded by Bro. C. J. Holman.

Principals McCrimmon and Dicklow, being introduced, addressed the Convention in line with the special work in which they are engaged.

The following were elected to fill vacancies on the Board of Governors:—Brethren F. Tracy, C. J. Holman, D. Hutchinson, and D. W. Karn.

Bro. E. T. Fox moved the appointment of Brethren W. H. Porter, C. Goodspeed and T. H. Rand to convey the greetings of the Convention to the Maritime brethren.

Prof. J. H. Farmer closed his series of expositions in Colossians, and the thanks of the Convention were tendered him for the same.

Adjourned with benediction.

FRIDAY, May 28th, 1897.

EVENING SESSION.

After the opening exercises, conducted by President Smith, Chancellor Wallace took the chair, presiding over a platform meeting held in the interests of our educational work.

Before calling upon the speakers of the evening the Committee on Memorial to the Queen reported through Bro. D. B. Thomas, Chairman, as follows:—
