workers, increasing prosperity.

The Flesherton Epworth League has just closed a two weeks evangelistic campaign. The meetings, which were held nightly were conducted entirely by Leaguers, and were exceedingly well attended. A grantly poined the League has a result of the mentage, and some eight young people joined the church. The spirit of the League has been wonderfully improved, and the interest excited in the weekly meetings to a grantlying extent.

The Almond's Epworth League, on the Whithy Circuit, heid a pound social at the home of one of its members recently, when a profitable and pleasant time was spent. a profitable and pleasant time was spent. Hunter. 60 cents.

This is indeed a grand book. In its 40 chapters are treated as many practical questions relating to family life, it would be of great benefit to all the homes of our land and to the nation at large if the principles it announces and inculcates were in universal practice. Give it to your friends having young growing children. They will profit by your gift.
