

More Terrible Than War!

More terrible than war, famine or pestilence is that awful destroyer, that hydra-headed monster, Consumption, that annually sweeps away more of earth's inhabitants than any other single disease known to the human race.

"It is only a cold, a trifling cough," say the careless, as the irritation upon the delicate mucous membrane causes them to huck away with an irritable tickling of the throat. When the irritation settles on the mucous surface of the throat, a cough is the result. To prevent Bronchitis or Consumption of the Lungs, do not neglect a cough however slight as the irritation spreading throughout the delicate lining of the sensitive air passages soon leads to fatal results. If on the first appearance of a cough or cold you would take a few doses of you would save yourself a great deal of unnecessary suffering. Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup contains all the life-giving properties of the pine trees of Norway, and for Asthma, Croup, Whooping Cough and all Throat and Lung affections it is a specific. Be sure when you ask for Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup to get it. Don't be humbugged into taking something else. Price 25 cts.

Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup

Miss Lena Johnston, Toledo, Ont., writes: "I have used Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup for throat troubles after taking numerous other remedies, and I must say that nothing can take the place of it. I would not be without a bottle of it in the house."

QUESTIONS AND ANSWERS. Miscellaneous.

CONCURRENT TERMS.

If a man is sentenced to seven years in penitentiary for bigamy and three for theft, and the sentences to run concurrently, how many years will he have to serve?

Ontario. Ans.—Seven.

SELLER AND BUYER.

1. If I sold a stack of hay, and the buyer paid me $10 down, and I was to board the hands, and draw it to the station, and help to press it, and it got burnt before it was pressed, who would lose it?
2. If I sold a horse for $150, and I was to keep the horse for a month, and the horse died before I delivered him, the buyer having given me $15 down on him, who would be the loser?

Ans.—1 and 2. In each case, the buyer.

RINGWORM.

I have some steers that have white scabby patches around their eyes and ears, and on several other parts of body. The tops of same are, at first, powdery. I used sheep dip, then they turned into dry and cracked hard crusts. Now a bull calf, one month old, has it. It usually appears first around eyes and ears, and about the size of a pea. Can you tell me what it is, cause of same, treatment, and whether infectious?

OLD SUBSCRIBER.

Ans.—We should judge it is ringworm, which is infectious, but not dangerous. Ringworm can usually be cured by the application of a mixture of lard and sulphur. A little coal oil in the mixture makes it even more effective. It is well to first wash the affected parts with warm soapsuds to soften the scale, and if the scale is scraped off with the nails or a corn brush, the ointment will do its work more quickly; but, generally, if treated two or three times with the ointment alone, a cure is certain. It is good practice to wash the walls and stalls of the stable with lime whitewash, with carbolic acid added, as ringworm is a parasitic disorder, and spreads by contact.

RECOVERING COSTS.

About a year ago I was duped into one of those "Get rich quick" schemes, giving my order for goods, but, finding the goods to be worthless, refused to pay. Plaintiff threatened to sue in his own Division Court. One clause in order was to the effect that I waived my right to such, which is illegal. Defendant, under legal advice, had his lawyer make application to have a transfer to his Division Court. Judge in plaintiff's Division Court reserved judgment, afterwards deciding in plaintiff's favor. Following the same legal advice, defendant put in a motion for prohibition in High Court, in Toronto, Chief Justice—deciding in his favor. Plaintiff put in an appeal, which was then dismissed with costs. It now transpires that, upon search being made, plaintiff is worth nothing, he having assigned everything over to his wife. Defendant, on the other hand, although he has shaped himself the same, is anxious to have the thing settled.

1. Can defendant's lawyer in this case collect his costs from him, if he is worth it?
2. Can he not garnish plaintiff?
3. What is the next best procedure to follow?

DEFENDANT.

Ontario. Ans.—1. Yes.
2 and 3. We do not see that garnishing proceedings are in order, but would suggest that you consult your lawyer regarding same and generally as to how you may realize upon your judgment against plaintiff for costs.
