OBITUARY

MRS. MARY MORAN

It is our painful duty to chronicle the death of one of the pioneer settlers of the Township of Ashfield in the person of Mary Moran, relict of the late William Moran. Her death took place in St. Joseph's Hospital, London, on Thursday, June 14th, 1923. The rites of Holy Mother the Church were administered by her son Rev. W. T. Moran. At her bedside were also three sons and a daughter. The deceased lady was born in Wexford, Ireland, May 24th, 1840, being in her eighty-fourth year. Her maiden name was Clare and youngest of a family of six. All have predeceased her. The family came to Canada in 1847.

On Friday, June 15th, the remains were conveyed by C.N.R. to Lucknow, thence to her late residence in the 9th concession Ashfield from which place the funeral took place on Saturday, June 16th, to St. Joseph's church, Ashfield. Solemn Requiem High Mass was celebrated by her son, Rev. W. T. Moran, with Rev. W. A. Dean, P.P., as Deacon, Rev. B. Gaffney of Clinton, sub-Deacon and Rev. P. J. Gnam of Goderich preacher.

After the Mass the body was conveyed to its last resting place in St. Joseph's cemetery where the final prayers were recited by Rev. W. T. Moran.

The veneration by which she was held was evinced by the large concourse of friends and former neighbors as well as those from neighboring parishes who thronged the parish church to pay their last respects. Those from a distance included: Cap. Robt. Clare and Lt. M. Lannan of Detroit; Mr. Jas. McConnell, Clinton; Mr. and Mrs. M. Devereux, Mr. and Mrs. J. McMullen, Mr. and Mrs. D. Shanahan, Mrs. L. Fortune, Seaford; Mr. F. McConnell of Dublin. The pall-bearers were her four sons Patrick, Robert, John and Joseph; and her nephews Cap. R. Clare and Lt. M. Lannan. The deceased leaves to mourn her loss six sons, and two daughters James, Patrick, Robert, John, Joseph and Rev. Wm. T. Mrs. C. O'Connor and Mrs. G. McGlynn. Her husband predeceased her six years ago. May her soul rest in peace.

WILLIAM A. TRUDELL

On Tuesday, June 6, there passed to his eternal reward William A. Trudell, Tilbury, son of the late Isidore Trudell. Deceased was stricken with paralysis four days before his death, but rallied sufficiently to receive the last holy rites.

Mr. Trudell was one of the most highly respected citizens of Tilbury, and a staunch Catholic, and was widely known for his upright and genial character, and will be much missed by his community.

The floral and spiritual offerings were numerous showing the high esteem in which he was held. He is survived by his widow, formerly Miss Elizabeth Hammar, of Glen Allan, also four sisters, Mrs. W. Cautts, Tilbury, Mrs. Louis Bructte, Prairie Siding, Misses Ellen and Julia, at home and M. St. Leo of the Ursuline Community, Chatham. He was predeceased by his father in April, 1921, his brother Francis in January of this year, and by his mother and sister Annie of some years ago. The late William Trudell, was enjoying the best of health until his last illness, and was forty-two years of age.

The funeral took place to St. Francis' Church, Tilbury, and was one of the largest ever attended, and thence to the R. C. cemetery. Rev. Father Marchand, assisted by Rev. Father Martin and Mgr. Parent, sang the High Requiem Mass, while Rev. Father Marchand officiated at the grave.

MRS. CECILIA ROACH

On June 9th, occurred the death of Mrs. Cecilia Roach of Brechin, Ont. Mrs. Roach was born in Roscommon, Ireland, in 1840. Her family came to Canada in 1845 and settled in Mara Township, where the village of Brechin now stands. For a number of years Cecilia Roach taught school in the vicinity of Brechin and Owen Sound. She married Thos. Roach in Owen Sound in 1866. The young couple made their home in Brechin and have resided there ever since with the exception of an interval of nine years during which they dwelt in Toronto.

The funeral Mass was celebrated in St. Andrew's Church, Brechin. The officers of the Mass were Rev. T. Roach, celebrant, Rev. W. Roach, deacon; Rev. E. J. McCorkell, sub-deacon and Rev. S. McGrath, master of ceremonies. Present in sanctuary were Rev. K. Morrow, Rev. J. Hayes, Rev. W. P. Heydon, Rev. G. Prance, Rev. V. Reath, Very Rev. F. Forster, Rev. P. Flanagan and Rev. J. Clare.

Rev. E. J. McCorkell preached a powerful sermon on the care which the church exercises towards the sick and dying.

Mrs. Roach leaves to mourn her memory five sons and one daughter: Dr. J. J. Roach, Montreal, P. I.; M. H. Roach, Beaverton; Rev. T. Roach, Owen Sound, Ont.; Rev. W. Roach, Toronto; G. T. Roach, Toronto and Mrs. J. S. Kormann, Toronto.

MRS. ELLEN BROPHY

On June 22nd the mortal remains of Mrs. Ellen Brophy were laid to rest in St. Peter's cemetery, London, Ont. Deceased had been in failing health for several months and hope for her recovery became more and more remote from anxious friends who watched by her bedside.

The funeral was held from Mt. Hope, Solemn High Mass of Requiem having been sung by Rev. Father Wm. Brophy of Joplin, Mo., assisted by Rev. Father Moran of St. Augustine as deacon and Rev. Father Dean of Ashfield as sub-deacon. Rev. Father Sullivan of Chatham was master of ceremonies. Besides her husband, Geo. Brophy, deceased leaves to mourn her loss her only son Rev. Wm. Brophy of Joplin, Mo., two daughters, Sister Mary Veronica and Sister Mary Immaculate, both of St. Joseph's Community, three brothers, Dan Callaghan of St. Augustine, Will and Joe of Edmonton, and one sister, Mrs. P. Sullivan of Ashfield.

MATERNITY BENEFITS

A comparative study of maternal mortality rates in various countries on both sides of the Atlantic resulted in the recent discovery that our Canadian rate of maternal mortality is abnormally high. There were no fewer than eighteen nations whose rates are lower than ours, and in the majority of these cases the rate is very much lower than ours.

"Why is Canada's rate so high?" people have frequently asked. There are many different answers to the question. Some point out the fact that many of our women live in remote districts where it is difficult to secure medical or nursing service. Others lay a great deal of the blame on uncertified midwives who are often ignorant of fundamental laws of hygiene. Still others assert that the mortality rate among mothers would be lowered if more emphasis were placed on the study of obstetrics and gynaecology in our medical colleges, and if our nurses in training were to be given longer experience in maternity nursing than is at present the case.

There is considerable force in these and similar statements. But before arriving at any general conclusion on the subject some study should be given to the methods adopted by those countries where the maternal mortality rate is lower than in Canada. It is interesting to note that in no fewer than seventeen countries of Europe legislation has been enacted at some time within the last fifty years providing maternity benefits for necessitous women. Another significant fact is this, that in no case has any country of Europe repealed legislation of this sort once it has been enacted, and wherever a change has been made in the original statute it has been for the purpose of extending its scope. The advantages of schemes for maternity protection and benefit have become so apparent that the International Labor Conference two years ago devoted special attention to the subject and a Draft Convention was adopted for the purpose of guaranteeing protection to all women engaged in commercial and industrial undertakings. In the following year the International Labor Conference recommended that similar protection be given to women engaged in agricultural pursuits as well. What they arrived at is the minimum protection any nation should offer to such women was the following:

- (a) Prohibition of employment for the six weeks following childbirth. (b) The right to leave work on production of a medical certificate stating that confinement will take place within six weeks. (c) The right to benefit sufficient for the full and healthy maintenance of herself and the child during these two periods, such benefit to be provided out of public funds or by a system of insurance. (d) Free attendance by a doctor or certified midwife. (e) The right to period of half an hour twice a day during working hours for the purpose of nursing her child.

Canada was a party to the Draft Convention for the Protection of Women in Industry, but as yet only one Province, British Columbia, has enacted legislation even partially covering the points given above. It is a matter for speculation as to when the other provincial legislature will realize the need for conservation of life in some such way as that outlined by the Draft Convention.—The Social Service Council, Canada.

TO THE VIRGIN MARY

One of the most impressive addresses to a graduating class ever given at Trinity College was that delivered by Justice Wendell Phillips Stafford of the Supreme Court of the District of Columbia. Justice Stafford, a convert to the faith, spoke of the place of Catholic women in the world today and especially urged upon the graduating class a tender and constant devotion to the Blessed Virgin Mary.

In closing his address, Justice Stafford delivered this beautiful apostrophe to the Mother of God:

O clear as the sun and fair as the moon And strong as a battle arrayed, Lean down from the heights of thy glory,

O hear us, and give us thine aid, Thy people who gather before thee Immaculate Mother and Maid!

Thy paeon the angels are singing; With sandals of flame they are shod, Thy lily-wound stems they are bringing,

To Jesse's o'er blossoming rod; The heavens are a rose-bloom enringing The beautiful Mother of God.

But down on the earth we are treading, The valley of shadows and tears. On a lengthening rosary threading The ebony beads of the years, And we cry, through the cloud over-spreading,

To the heart of the Mother, that hears. O pray for us here in the darkness, Thou with the stars in thy hair; Pray, for to thee there is given A grace for thy children to share. O Mary the hinges of heaven Will turn at the breath of thy prayer!

CALLAGHAN'S TOURS

Factors in Success

The things that make an enterprise successful are:

- 1. Management. 2. A good product. 3. A steady and extensive market. 4. Economical production and selling. 5. Ample working Capital.

All these are present and have been thoroughly demonstrated in the business of Belgo Canadian Paper Co., Limited.

For the past 20 years, it has earned ample profits, despite the violent conditions that have affected the world.

Its output has increased and its hold on its market grown firmer with each succeeding year.

And the same management which has guided its progress in all that time, still directs its affairs.

For these reasons, among others, the 6% First Mortgage Bonds of the Company present a most desirable opportunity to investors. Denominations: $1,000 and $500.
