HOMESTEAD REGULATIONS.

ANY even numbered section of Dominion Lands in Manitoba, Saskatchewan and Alberta, excepting 8 and 26, not reserved, may be homesteaded by any person who is the sole head of a family, or any male over 18 years of age, to the extent of one-quarter section of 160 acres, more or less.

Application for entry must be made in person by the applicant at a Dominion Lands Agency or Sub-agency for the district in which the land is situate. Entry by proxy may, however be made at any Agency on certain conditions by the father, mother, son, daughter, brother or sister of an intending homesteader.

DUTIES.—(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year for three years.

(2) A homesteader may, if he so desires, perform the required residence duties by living on farming land owned solely by him, not less than eighty (80) acres in extent, in the vicinity of his homestead. He may also do so by living with father or mother, on certain conditions. Joint ownership in land will not meet this requirement.

(3) A homesteader intending to perform his residence duties in accordance with the above while living with parents or on farming land owned by himself must notify the Agent for the district of such intention.

BY REV. THOS. CROSBY.

Cloth. Fully Illustrated. $1.25, postpaid.

The Vancouver World in its review said, "Among the An-ko-me-nums, by Rev. Thos. Crosby, is the title of a book which should have an extensive and appreciative reading by the general public. . . . In his book Mr. Crosby places on record many interesting facts regarding the early history of the aborigines, their customs, usages, folk-lore and wars, and—what will most interest friends of missions—their evangelization. Incidentally, there is also much information respecting the early days of the trade and settlement of the country. The story of Mr. Crosby's life and labors, as untold in this volume, is rich in heroic adventure, hair breadth escapes and splendid achievements in the interests of humanity."
