

*Now thanks be unto Him Who giveth us
The Victory,
And praise unto His name both now and through Eternity,
For in our despair He lifted us from out the fearful pit,
And saved us from the deep and miry clay,
And hath set our feet upon a rock which may not more a while,
So firmly hath He stablished it for aye.
Now unto Him, our present help, our sure defence and tower,
Throughout the echoing ages be the kingdom and the power
And the glory.*

