15 Year Prodigy
Beaten at Last

Philadelphia, Sept. 8.—The favorite won in the third round of the national golf tournament at the Merion Cricket Club yesterday, and today will see Robert A. Gardner, the title-holder, paired with Jesse Guilford, the Massachusetts champion, while Chick Evans, Chicago, will play against D. C. Corkran, of Baltimore, the only dark horse to reach the semi-finals.

Gardner more than had his hands full to dispose of R. T. Jones, jun., the 45-year-old Georgia youth, who has been the surprise of the tournament. The title-holder was one down after the first 18 holes, but by playing par golf all afternoon won on the 33rd green by four up and three to play.

Chick Evans put his old rival, John G. Anderson of New York, out of the going yesterday, 9 and 8.

New England has Jesse Guilford of Manchester, N.H., and Boston still in, as the Bay State Champion put out Gardner White of Flushing by a four to three score.

Just below the Mason and Dixon line we find D. Corkran of Baltimore. Corkran put out yesterday Cameron B. Buxton, Philadelphia's hope, by a five and four score.

John Anderson of Siwanoy was no match yesterday for Chick Evans. The open champion had a lead of six up at the end of 18 holes, while the final score was 9 to 8. Evans played great golf, taking 75 for the completed morning round to 84 by Anderson.

Magee Errorless
in 76 Games

A record for flawless fielding is claimed by Boston sporting writers for Sherwood Magee, left fielder of the Braves. Without an error in 76 games, Magee has accepted 170 chances perfectly.

The best previous fielding record available here showed that in 1908 Schatz of the Chicago Cubs, made only one error in 125 chances.

MAY ESTABLISH WINTER LEAGUE.

California baseball managers may establish a league this winter composed of young players of San Francisco, Los Angeles and other cities where the league promoters feel like encouraging. The idea is to eliminate old-timers and make it a proposition to bring out the young material which seems so much in evidence around the bay section.

You Never Can Tell in Baseball

Harry Pulliam, late president of the National League, once remarked: "Never take anything for granted in baseball," and Pulliam was right, as the standing of the clubs in both major leagues attests.

A week ago it looked as though the Dodgers and Red Sox had almost clinched the bunting in their respective leagues. Their owners already were deciding what they would do with the world series gold. And then came the terrible awakening.

In just seven days' play the once comfortable lead of the Brooklynites has shriveled to a matter of ten points, with the Braves thundering along at a good clip.

And, "if the Dodgers once lose the lead they are through; they won't come back," declare the baseball sharps. "The Ebettis crowd is not a team of fighters. It cannot come up from the rear. Should the Dodgers drop to second place, the fighting for first will be between the Braves and Phillies."

Just a few days ago the Red Sox had acquired such a lead that it seemed that they were "in" and then the Tigers walloped them twice and the Browns followed it up by doing out a double beating, which has had the effect of tightening the race again.

The Tigers, spurring as never before this season, are only three games behind the league leaders, with the Browns ensconced in third place, four games to the bad.

Schupp Gave
Only Two Hits

New York, Sept. 8.—New York broke even on a four-game series with Brooklyn yesterday by winning the fourth game by a score of 4 to 1. Schupp permitted only two hits and only 29 Brooklyn men went to bat. Wheat hit a home run for the Yankees.

LINES

Boston took the third game of the series from the Athletics, 5 to 2. Sheehan was opposed to Leontaro and the Red Sox star had the better of the argument. A cluster of hits and a double by Janvrin in the third inning gave champions three runs, and they were never headed.

Bread was raised to sixteen cents a large loaf in St. Catharines, the highest on record.

Phillies Took Two
From the Braves

Boston, Sept. 8.—Philadelphia won both games from Boston yesterday, the first 4 to 2 and the second 2 to 0. In the first game Rixey allowed but one hit up to the seventh inning, when the home team scored; in the second game Rixey allowed but one hit up to the sixth inning, when Barnes relieved Hughes, who was struck on the back of the right hand with a pitched ball. Philadelphia scored its two runs in the ninth on a single by Luderus after two were down, and an error by Smith had filled the bases. Scores:—

First game—	R. H. E.
Philadelphia	100020100—4 12 1
Boston	000000200—2 6 1
Rixey and Killifer; Regan, Reulbach and Gowdy.

Second game—	R. H. E.
Philadelphia	000000002—2 6 0
Boston	000000000—0 5 1
Mayer and Burns; Hughes, Barnes and Gowdy.

Pirates Won
Slugging Match

Pittsburg, Sept. 8.—Heavy hitting featured yesterday's game Pittsburg winning from Chicago 5 to 4. After yielding six hits and three runs in the second inning Packard was taken out and Prendergast, who took his place, also was hit hard. Mamaux was forced from the box in the seventh, Cooper relieving him while the tying run was on third and none out and held the visitors' runless the rest of the game.

Chicago	000102100—4 11 9
Pittsburg	121001000—5 12 9
Packard, Prendergast, Carter and Archer; Williams; Mamaux, Cooper and Schmidt; Fisher.

Tigers Used 5
Pitchers Lost

Detroit, Sept. 8.—The Tigers received a setback to-day when St. Louis took a weird game, 6 to 5. The generosity of the Tiger pitchers, of whom five were used, was responsible for the defeat. Thirteen visiting batsmen were given bases on balls. Score:—

St. Louis	002031000—6 5 0
Detroit	021000110—5 10 1
Davenport, Koob, Plank and Hartley; Davis, Holand, Dubuc, Cunningham, Mitchell and Stange; Baker.

At Washington—	R. H. E.
New York	000100000—1 7 2
Washington	120002010—5 9 2
Morridge and Alexander; Gallia and Henry.

Second game—	R. H. E.
New York	000020010—3 8 1
Washington	000001010—2 8 5
Fisher, Shawkey and Walters; Ayres, Gray, Goodwin and Williams.

At Philadelphia—	R. H. E.
Boston	000200000—2 4 3
Philadelphia	000000000—0 7 1
Foster and Thomas; Nabors and Placich.

At Chicago—	R. H. E.
Cleveland	010010010—3 11 1
Chicago	000100000—5 7 1
Baker, Couderc, Morin and O'Sell; Baker and O'Sell.
