Happy New Year

We wish to thank our Patrons and the Public generally for their generous support during 1918.

We wish you a Prosperous and Happy New Year.

A. E. HUNT & Co.

Harry Lauder had crowded houses on Saturday. Sunday morning he attended Fort Massey Church with the Lieut. Governor and family. In the afternoon he visited Camp Hill Hospital and sang the patients a few songs.

Mr. Win Nelson, Sydney, C. B. was in town for a few hours Sunday en route to Halifax. "Win" always has a good word for his native town and says there is no place like Truro.

NOTES FROM FORT DUFF ERIN, HEX. CO.

Mrs. Jas. P. Balcom has closed up her house for the winter months, and has gone to Halifax to live with her daughter, Mrs. Wm. McLeod. Mrs. Balcom's Grand-daughter, Margaret Dooks, is also staying there, and is taking up the D work at the Morris St. School.

Mrs. Thos. O'Leary, has also closed up her home and moved her family up to the Capital for the winter and is living on South St.

Our principal teacher, Miss Helen Reeves, has gone to her home in Odham, to spend her holidays. The pupils in her department as well as in Miss Hiltches of the Primary, were made happy on the last day of school by a Xmas treat and distribution of gifts.

Miss Mildred Gallagher, who came home to spend Xmas with her mother, drove through the country on Friday in order to reach the city in time to resume her duties on the teaching staff of Bloomfield School, Halifax.

Miss Alberta Whitman has arrived home after a two months stay in the City.

Miss Cora Self arrived on the Dufferin a week ago to visit her friend, Miss Jennie Tibbo for the festive season.

Mr. and Mrs. Aubrey Hartling spent Christmas Day at Moser River, with the latter's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Thos. Irwin.

W. E. Whitman arrived home from Pictou in time to spend the Xmas season with his family.

The A. O. Forrester's held a Pie Social in the Masonic Hall on Thursday evening. The affair was well patronized, and $75.00 made on the sale of pies.

Miss Jean Dunlap drove through the country to catch the Eastern train on Monday morning for Halifax, where she is attending Dalhousie College.

The S. S. Dufferin returned to this week on account of a short trip for repairs. The passengers included the funeral of the late Mr. J. H. Birch, where the military life of Lieut. George S. Harvey of Everett and Lieut. Roger E. White of Taunton.

It seemed as if these two chaps just couldn't be kept apart. Before that enlistment they had never seen nor heard of each other, but they became acquainted on the train on their way to train at Toronto for the British aviation and it was a case of love at first sight. From that time on where one was found, there could be seen the other.

They both enlisted in July, 1917. Being good American boys, they had endeavored to get into their country's service in the flying corps but for some of the technical reasons that resulted in many Americans being turned down in the early stages of the war, they were unsuccessful. They were accepted by the Canadian authorities, and on Aug. 1 were on their way to Toronto.

For three months at Toronto they lived together, mused together and completed their course there, both to be sent to Texas for flying and returned to Toronto together.

Christmas eve they sailed for England together. Had it not been for this close friendship they would have met rather a gloomy Christmas.

They are assigned to the same flying squadron and with the exception of a few days while Lieut. Harvey was in hospital they enjoyed each other's company until last June. In May they were both granted a furlough and had the brief rest period together in Scotland, and it was there that the photograph accompanying this story was taken.

On returning to duty in June, Lieut. Harvey was assigned to the 87th squadron and Lieut. White to the 93rd squadron for the first time in a year.

July 19, which was Lieut. Harvey's birthday, he learned that his ship was reported as "missing in action" on July 17. On that day in a letter he wrote to his wife, in Everett he said that he had been in a hot spot the day before but came out all right.

In August Mrs. Harvey received a telegram stating that Lieut. Harvey was reported "missing in action" Aug. 10 and then came long days anxious waiting until a cablegram from Switzerland, sent by Lieut. Harvey through the Red Cross. It consisted only of four words but they were volumes, "Alive, prisoner, White." was all that it said, but it told the reunion of these two chaps a prison camp behind the Hun in It was later learned that they were confined at Karishrue, Baden, many, no more remarkable news joyful reunion has been noted since the war.

Detail how these young lieutenants were taken prisoner have been learned. Lieut. White's engine went out a mid-air, while he was on a raid over enemy's lines. He landed with the enemy's lines. He escaped with, but rammed the machine into a tree to wreck it and prevent it falling into the hands of the enemy.

Lieut. Harvey was driving one of five English planes over the German lines when he was shot by 25 Hun machines

A Child's Tongue Shows if Liver Or Bowels Are Active

Every mother realizes, after giving her children "California Syrup of Figs," that this is their ideal laxative, because they love its pleasant taste and it thoroughly cleanses the tender little stomach, liver and bowels without gripping.

When cross, irritable feverish, or breath is bad, stomach sour, look at the tongue. Mother! If coated give a teaspoonful of this harmless "fruit laxative," and in a few hours all the foul, constipated waste, a surburled and undigested food passes out of the bowels, and you have a playful child again. When its little system is full of cold, throat sore, has stomach-ache, diarrhoea, indigestion, colic—remember, a good "inside cleansing" should always be the first treatment given.

Millions of mothers keep "California Syrup of Figs" handy; they know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for a 50-cent bottle of "California Syrup of Figs," which has directions for babies, children of all ages and grown-ups printed on the bottle. Beware of counterfeits sold here, so don't be fooled. Get the genuine, made by "California Fig Syrup Company."

MEN'S SOCIAL GATHERING IN FIRST PRESBYTERIAN HALL FRIDAY NIGHT.

Truro Daily News, Jan. 4

There was a most enjoyable Social Gathering in the Hall of the First Presbyterian Church last evening, and there was a good attendance.

This Brotherhood of which Mr. John Hay is president and Stipendiary Crowe is Secretary, plan on other, similar social entertainments during the winter.

On this occasion there was a Debate with a little social time besides. The subject of the Debate was: Resolved—That in the future interests of the Dominion of Canada will be best promoted by restricting Immigration to Peoples of the Anglo Saxon and Celtic Races.

The affirmative was supported by Messrs. C. M. Dawson and Prescott

"BEST MEDICINE FOR WOMEN"

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Did For Ohio Woman.

Portsmouth, Ohio.—"I suffered from irregularities, pains in my side and was so weak at times I could hardly get around to do my work, and as I had four in my family and three boarders it made it very hard for me. Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended to me. I took it and it has restored my health. It is certainly the best medicine for woman's ailments I ever saw."—Mrs. SARA SHAW, R. No. 1, Portsmouth, Ohio.

Mrs. Shaw proved the merit of this medicine and wrote this letter in order that other suffering women may find relief as she did.

Women who are suffering as she was should not drag along from day to day without giving this famous root and herb remedy, Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, a trial. For special advice in regard to such ailments write to Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass. The result of its forty years experience is at your service.

Blanchard, and the negative had strong champions in Stipendiary, Crowe and Hector Cutten.

This entertainment was varied with good music, both instrumental and vocal, and with the serving of light refreshments.

The song by Mr. A. Anderson and violin solo by Mr. Henderson were much appreciated.

The whole evening was enjoyably spent and The Brotherhood may look out for a big attendance at their next Social Gathering."

Mrs. L. Merville Nicholls, Wimburn Hill, will be at home on the 3rd and 4th Wednesday of each month.

Enlisting at the same time in the Royal Air Forces, sailing for France together and assigned to the same squadron, later being separated for a few months, only to be captured by the Germans within a few days of each other and becoming reunited in a German prison camp are a few of the incidents of the military life of Lieut. George S. Harvey of Everett and Lieut. Roger E. White of Taunton.

It seemed as if these two chaps just couldn't be kept apart. Before that enlistment they had never seen nor heard of each other, but they became acquainted on the train on their way to train at Toronto for the British aviation and it was a case of love at first sight. SENTENCES BY COURT-MARTIAL.

Toronto, Jan 3—Three sentences by Court Martial were promulgated at Military Headquarters this afternoon, as follows: Private Wm. Hortog, a Dutchman, for desertion from the Army Medical Corps, six months detention at Barracks. Private Jack McGullen of the Canadian Garrison regiment for disobeying a lawful command by a superior officer two years imprisonment with hard labor; Private Edward Joseph McDonald of the Canadian Garrison Regiment for striking his superior officer, forty two days detention.

FRENCH TROOPS IN MONTENEGRO.

Paris, Jan. 4—French troops entered Cetinje, the capital of Montenegro, on December 22, it is announced. They were greeted enthusiastically by the people and found that good order prevailed in the country. Five members of the national assembly have been charged with the management of the country affairs until the union of Montenegro and Serbia under the Karah Georgevitch Dynasty has been completed.

HER LITTLE GIRL COUGHED UNTIL SHE FAIRLY CHOKED.

Mrs. John Reinhardt, Ridgeway, Ont., writes: "My little girl at the age of a year and a half old had an awful cough. She would cough until she would fairly choke, and I was afraid it would go to her lungs. I thought I would use Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup, as I knew of quite a few persons who had used it with good results. I am glad I did so, as I only used one bottle. It is a sure cure for coughs and colds."

There is no reason why Dr. Wood's Norway Pine Syrup should not be recognized as the very best cough and cold remedy on the market to-day, combining as it does the lung healing virtues of the Norway pine tree, to which are added wild cherry bark, squills, and other soothing and healing pectoral remedies.

It has stood the test for the past 30 years and is becoming more generally used every year on account of its great merits in curing coughs, colds, bronchitis, croup, whooping cough, asthma, sore throat, and preventing pneumonia and in many cases consumption.

So great has been its success that there have been a great many imitations put on the market to take its place. See that none of these so-called "pine syrups" are handed out to you when you ask for "Dr. Wood's." The genuine and original is put up in a yellow wrapper; three pine trees the trade mark; price 25c. and 50c. Manufactured only by The T. Milburn Co., Limited, Toronto, Ont.

CHUM PRISONERS.

Aviators, Separated Only Once in Same Camp.

The Congregation of Coldstream have been giving tangible evidence of the esteem in which they hold their pastor and his wife.

On November 26 some friends had a telephone installed in the Manse.

Later others supplied two tons of Kempton Coal. On December 18, a large number from Valley and other sections of the Congregation surprised the occupant of the Manse. They came fully prepared to make the evening one long to be remembered. After some time spent in social chat, a presentation was made to Mrs. Bradley of a substantial sum of money and to Mr. Bradley a sack of grain, a sample of the many larger sacks already deposited in the barn, the winter's supply for his horse.

A very enjoyable evening was spent during which supper was served by the Ladies.

Such tokens of appreciation are very encouraging.
