CORRESPONDENCE.

Another Letter in Reference to the North Church Controversy. Dear Sir - It was with pain that I read in the columns of your interesting journal some time ago a controversy regarding the North Methodist Church in Farmersville...

One motive among the rest which induces me to say something on this matter is the knowledge I have had of George Nash, who was born and raised in the same neighborhood...

I do not like to hear the statement that George Nash has not a bit of claim upon the trustees and that he has not accounted for some subscription monies...

FRONT OF YONGE, TUESDAY, Nov. 6. - Junetown is having some trouble in the school and we think that the board of health should meet with the least possible delay and put their house in order.

THE PEOPLE OF CANTON AND VICINITY have responded manfully in assisting gratuitously in the erection of a monument to the memory of the late Mr. D. D. Tennant...

TUESDAY, Oct. 30. - Soon after my arrival at Glen Buel I began to make diligent enquiries respecting your representative in this important little town.

THE CHEESE MARKETS, Special to Reporters. BROCKVILLE, Nov. 6. - The cheese market remains very quiet; in point of fact there has been little of interest in it, as recent transactions have been unimportant.

REV. A. McDONALD MARRIED. On Wednesday morning last, a very interesting event took place at Mr. Richard Kelly's, when his daughter, Miss Annie, was taken to wife by the Rev. A. K. McDonald, B. A., pastor of the Baptist Church at Algonquin.

TRUSTEES FOR THE NEW CHURCH at Glen Buel, appointed on Monday, Nov. 5th, by the official and friendly conference of the Methodist Church, held at Lyn, were: Boyd Hall, John F. Fereval, Eri Hayes, Jr., R. G. Sturgeon, James Moore, O. F. Bullis and C. J. Gilroy.
