ENVY

I envy the boys that are playing to-day in the fields and the woods and the street; They're playing to-day, as I used to play, in the dells of some sylvan retreat. They know less of sorrow and far less of care, Nor the struggle for dollars and cents; And so, as I labor, I envy them there, As they play by the old picket fence.

I envy the boy that's gone fishing to-day With his bamboo rod and his worms; I hear the brook ripple and his laughter so gay, As the bullpout he lands writhes and squirms. He sits on the bank 'mid the tall waving grass, With his mind weaving some boyish dream, As he waits for the rise of a shiner or bass— Oh, I envy the boy by the stream.

I envy the boys that are swimming to-day In the old swimming hole by the mill; Though the water be dirty and full of blue clay, I'd "peel" and go in with a will. There's the old spring beard and the sod chinked dam That we built with such labor and care, 'Twas there, in days gone by, that I swam— Oh, I envy the boys that are there!

I envy the boys that are playing baseball In the yard by the old village school, There's little of science and the score is not small, For just "hit and run" is the rule. But there's lots of good spirits and lots of real fun, And what, friend of mine, equals that? They'll start in to-morrow as to-day was begun— Oh, I envy the boy with the bat!

I envy the boys that are boys to-day, I envy their freedom from strife, I envy the school-boy that knows only play, He's having the best days of his life; For after the boy there comes on the man, And the freedom of boyhood must go; So be a boy as long as you can, And don't envy the man with the hoe.

KILBORN-BENEDICT

On Wednesday last in Brockville the Rev. L. A. Betts united in marriage Miss Nina Robinson Benedict of Athens and Mr. Alfred D. Kilborn of Plum Hollow. The happy couple were accompanied by Mr. Percy Gifford and Miss Minnie DeWolfe.

Mr. and Mrs. Kilborn have taken up residence at the home of the groom in Plum Hollow, where they have the best wishes of a wide circle of friends for their future health and happiness.

Their Silver Wedding

Last Friday, 24th of May, rounded off twenty-five years of married life for Rev. E. W. and Mrs. Crane of Elgin, and the worthy couple marked the event by inviting a number of their friends to their home. Among the guests from a distance were their son Charles of Winchester, two sisters of Mr. Crane from Toronto, and Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Knowlton and Mrs. and Mrs. Jonas Steacy of Athens. Every part of the circuit was represented in the large assembly of guests.

An excellent supper was served and the evening was spent in a thoroughly sociable and enjoyable manner. The bride and groom were heartily congratulated upon their safe arrival at this important milestone in the journey of life and many expressions of good wishes for the future were uttered.

As requested, the guests brought no presents, but after arrival a purse was made up by the guests and presented by Mr. George Warren.

In common with many in Athens, the Reporter has only pleasant memories of the sojourn here of Rev. E. W. Crane and family and joins heartily in the good wishes offered.

IRON BLOOD PILLS

NATURE'S SPRING SYSTEM CLEANSER

As the neat house wife cleans her house every spring after being closed up during the winter months, so our system needs the cleaning of its impurities. Iron enters largely into the system and no better purifier can be used than a course of Lamb's Iron Blood Pills.—They give tone to the system, cleanse and supply new blood. Instead of a pale, sallow complexion the iron they contain supplies the lack in the blood corpuscles. A few boxes will cause a rosy cheek, a healthy look and new courage to do our daily work. Try them. 25c box or 5 boxes for $1.00

DELIBERATE CASE OF GRAVE-ROBBING

Remarkable Experience of Well-known Forest Citizen Vouched for by Baptist Minister and Local Druggist

(From Forest Free Press)

Forest, May 2nd, 1907.—The following facts, vouched for by Rev. C. E. Burrell, Baptist minister, and Ralph E. Scott, the well-known local druggist, is incontrovertible evidence that even when physicians have abandoned hope, there is still a way whereby the grave may be cheated of its prey.

John A. Galbraith is a well-to-do farmer, living in Plympton Township, about five miles from Forest. He is 5 feet 9 inches in height, and about 46 years of age. He enjoyed good health until early in 1906, when he had a severe attack of pleuro-pneumonia, which apparently broke up his whole system. In speaking of the case to the Forest Free Press, he said:—

"I did not seem able to gain any strength after the attack of pneumonia. A doctor advised me to settle all my affairs as quickly as possible. This was the condition I was in when my pastor, Rev. C. E. Burrell, of the Baptist Church, advised me to try Psychine, and procured for me a trial bottle. This was in May, 1906, and at that time I was reduced in weight to 120 pounds. The Psychine seemed to do good from the start, and I continued until I had used about $15 worth from Scott's Drug Store, Forest. I gained in weight at the rate of half a pound a day until I went up to 150 pounds, steadily regaining my strength and feeling better. I actually had to have my clothes enlarged, not through any corpulence, but owing to a putting on of good solid flesh all over. I have resumed my work and have gone through this severe and sickly winter with nothing worse than an attack of grip, which my system was able to throw off without any serious results.

"I give this statement for the purpose of showing how Psychine has probably saved my life, and in the hope that others may be likewise benefited by its use.

"J. A. GALBRAITH."

"Mr. J. A. Galbraith is a prominent member of my church, trusted by his neighbors and very highly respected throughout the entire community. His case has attracted very considerable attention. His was a pitiable case, indeed; in the prime of life and with the brightest of prospects to be suddenly stricken down in the midst of it all. Visiting him after his physicians had pronounced his case hopeless (and, indeed, set the date at about which he would likely pass away), and observing pretty closely his condition, it occurred to me that Psychine, which I had used in my own family with wonderful results, might benefit him. I strongly recommended it to him, and he began its use. The result was truly wonderful. Almost immediately he began to improve and soon was able to be out again. He apparently regained his old health and was able to take up once again his old duties on his large farm and to perform them with comparative ease and comfort. The improvement was permanent, and he is to-day apparently just as well as ever. He gives all the credit for his recovery, under God, to Psychine.

"C. E. BURRELL,"

"Baptist Pastor."

"I have read the statements made by Mr. J. A. Galbraith and Rev. C. E. Burrell regarding the results of the use of Psychine. I know both gentlemen personally and can heartily endorse all that they have said. Mr. Galbraith obtained his supply of Psychine at my drug store, saying from time to time that it had done him good. I took an interest in his case, and noted a steady improvement. Altogether I sold him about $15.00 worth. Psychine is having a big run here, and so far as I know is always used with beneficial results.

"RALPH E. SCOTT."
