SON SHOT FATHER

Fired Rifle As Joke and Swerving Hor

Minhedosa, Man., Aug. 22.—John Robertson of Clan William, was acci-Robertson of Clan William, was accidentally shot by his son Henry Friday morning and instantly killed.

Father and son were walking through their fields, the latter carrying a rifle, when they saw a neighbor's horse in the grain. The father jumped on the horse to ride it off the place and the son, as a joke, fired off the rifle to scare the animal, which swerved as the weapon was raised, and unfortunately the man raised, and unfortunately the man received the bullet in the back, dying almost instantly.

Deceased with his family came from the Ottawa district this spring.

Fell in a Fly Wheel.

Hamilton, Aug. 22.—C. W. Kirk-patrick of this city received a telegram yesterday afternoon, stating that his brother, Albert H., had been killed at Prince Albert, Saskatchewan. The deceased was superintendent of construction for the firm of E. Leonard & Sons, London, Ont., and fell' into the fly wheel of an electric plant that he had just installed for the town. His home was in London, where he leaves a widow and one child. William Kirkpatrick of this city is his father.

DAMAGE TO FRUIT CROP

Thousands of Dollars Loss By Gale in Nova Scotia.

Wind Blew About 45 Miles An Hour and the Annapolis Valley Was a Heavy Sufferer_Shipping Along the Coast Was Badly Buffeted-Six Pleasure Yachts Driven Ashore and Wrecked-Others Sunk,

Halifax, N.S., Aug. 22.-The heavlest summer gale in years swept over Nova Scotia Saturday night. All through the Annapolis Valley damage amounting to thousands of dollars was done to the fruit crop, and all other growing crops in other parts of the province suffered immensely. In Halifax numerous shade trees were uprooted and some expensive plate glass windows were smashed by flying awnings. On the water front the new steamer Senlac, which ar-rived from St. John a few hours previously broke loose from her moor ings and tore away her guards on the starboard side and otherwise did damage amounting to several hun-damage amounting to several hundreds of dollars.

The Olivette, which arrived from Boston last night was under water continually, and was boarded by a heavy sea, which smashed the windows, but fortunately did no other damage. A coal laden schooner was blown against an I.C.R. trestle and was so hadly damaged that it is was so badly damaged that it is hard work to keep her afloat. Six pleasure yachts were driven ashore and totally wrecked and several others were sunk. The storm was hard on bird life, numerous dead sparrows being picked up under the trees. The wind blew about 45 miles an hour and the rain came in torrents.

Thousands of Sparrows Dead.

New York, Aug. 22.—After the heavy storm of Saturday morning thousands of dead sparrows were found in Jersey City, Newark, Hoboken and other New Jersey towns. They were found in piles in the corners of buildings and under trees in the park. As there was no lightning it is thought that the weight of the downpour simply beat them to death.

$100,000 Fire in Toronto. Toronto, Aug. 22.-Brown Bros. & Co. are again sufferers from fire, which occurred last night, this time to the extent of about $70,000. The Queen City Rink Company's loss is $25,000, and St. Paul's Church $2,-500. When Brown Bros. & Co. were burned out in the big fire of April.

10 they secured as a temporary way. 19 they secured as a temporary ware-house the Queen City Rink, at Church and Hayden streets, and it was these premises that were hurned last night. A "live" wire is charged with the loss. On the north side, St. Paul's Church school house was bad-ly burned. The south side of the roof is completely gone, and the wood-work, decorations and carpets ruined by water. The roof of the church is also damaged.

All the Swimmers Gave Up. Dover, England, Aug. 22.—The three swimmers who set out to cross the Strait of Dover all gave up. It was Montagu Holbein's fifth attempt, and he lasted 10 hours and 20 minutes in the water. Jack Haggarty was first to quit, in an hour and a half. He was in a state of collapse. S. W. Greasley, who started yesterday morning, quit in the same time. The water was too cold.
